SEVENTY DIE IN SOUTH AMERICAN EARTHQUAKE

FIFTY INJURED AND THOUSANDS MADE HOMELESS IN CHILE

Reported That the Entire Business Section of Coquimbo is Destroyed—Chilean Naval Vessels Are Unable to Communicate by Radio—Tidal Wave Adds to the Disaster

(By The Associated Press)
BULLETIN
VALPARAISO, Nov. 11.—Seventy persons are dead and fifty injured at Coquimbo from the earthquake today. The business district including the Grace & Co. building is reported to have been destroyed. Five thousand persons are homeless at Ovalle, Illapel, and other towns in the same district. Efforts made thruout the day by Chilean naval vessels to communicate by radio with ships at the Port of Antofagasta have been fruitless.

SANTIAGO, Chile, Nov. 11.—An earthquake of great magnitude and far spread effect rocked Chile from end to end today. It was accompanied by a tidal wave, and the combined force of the earth tremors and the sweep of the water did vast damage, the extent of which it is impossible to estimate because telegraphic lines were carried down at various places cutting off communication.

WOODROW WILSON DISCUSSED WORLD PEACE YESTERDAY

Scores Senators Who Opposed League Of Nations

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Woodrow Wilson told a host of friends and admirers who made an Armistice Day visit to his home today that world peace could be brought about only by "active cooperation for justice" and "not by amiable phrases." America always has stood for justice, he declared, adding that the "puny persons" now standing in the way would "find presently that their weakness is no match for the strength of a moving providence."

The former president spoke from the portico of his S Street residence and without manuscript or notes. His remarks continued about five minutes. They were the first he had made on public questions since he was stricken on his league of nations tour of the west three years ago. This was his third public appearance since he left the white house on March, 1921.

The appearance of Mr. Wilson who was assisted to the portico by a negro servant was the signal for prolonged cheers from the crowd. The war time president responded with a smile and raising of his conventional silk hat. Mrs. Wilson did not accompany him, but as she appeared to assist him indoors after his address she, too, received an ovation. Mr. Wilson's address was in response to one delivered to him by Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey, who declared that the principles enunciated by Mr. Wilson during the war would prevail and that on last Tuesday it had been demonstrated that the people of America are escaping vigor of delivery and his voice carried only slightly beyond the inner edge of the crowd. The text of his remarks follows:

Is Much Moved.
"I am very much moved by this wonderful exhibition of your friendship and approval, and I have been reflecting today that armistice day has a particular significance for the United States because the United States has remained contented with the Armistice and has not moved forward to peace."

"It is a very serious reflection that the United States, the great (Continued on Page Four.)

LLOYD GEORGE IS GIVEN WELCOME IN CRICCIETH WALES

Greeted by Big Torchlight Parade in His Home Town

(By The Associated Press)
CRICCIETH, Wales, Nov. 11.—After a strenuous week of campaigning, former Premier Lloyd George was welcomed to his home town tonight by a great torchlight procession. He will spend a quiet week end here and depart Monday to begin a whirlwind finish of the campaign at Denbigh and Flint.

Completing the third stage of his campaign in Wales the former premier left Swansea early this morning and proceeded homeward, but he made numerous halts on the way and in an extremely jovial mood, addressed crowds energetically at numerous stations.

A tumultuous welcome was given Mr. Lloyd George at the market hall in Swansea where a vast audience previously had stood silent for two minutes to commemorate the signing of the armistice.

Referring in his speech to the statement of John R. Clines, the labor leader, that as premier he gave the working class nothing but words, Mr. Lloyd George said: "I claimed face of England, Scotland and Wales in the face of the world and in the face of history, there is no British minister who has ever devoted so much energy to, or made more liberal provision for, the misfortunes of the wage earning classes that I have done."

OUTPUT OF COAL SHOWS INCREASE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The total output of coal in the country for the current week, the geological survey estimated today was 12,600,000 tons, of which 1,900,000 tons was anthracite. This is approximately 200,000 greater than the output last week and was taken as further evidence of the passage of the fuel crisis which impeded during the early fall as a result of the prolonged miners strike. The production rate the survey estimated is allowing consumers to put into stock as much as 6,000,000 monthly after filling their current needs.

CLEMENCEAU SAILS FOR UNITED STATES

(By The Associated Press)
HAVRE, France, Nov. 11.—Georges Clemenceau, the famous Tiger of France, boarded the steamer Paris this morning ready to sail for his speaking tour in the United States. He walked to the upper deck smiling and bowing in recognition of many greetings from sailors and stewards of the ship.

Taking a peep at the sky, he remarked: "It's a fine day. I won't be seasick."

A woman correspondent asked Clemenceau for an interview on American women and he replied: "What are American women so different? At my age all women are the same."

The Tiger smiled at his own remark and then resumed his talk to the feminine writer. "Why are you a journalist?" he asked her. "Why not become a physician? I can teach you medicine in half an hour, but journalism is too complicated for anybody."

HUNGER STRIKERS GO BACK TO EATING

(By The Associated Press)
DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—By The A. P.—Mrs. O'Rahilly and three other women prisoners who have been on hunger strike out of having collapsed Miss MacSwiney took food today. One of them having collapsed Miss MacSwiney urged the women not to continue their fast. Miss MacSwiney refused to accept food. Today was the eighth day of her strike. Friends of Miss MacSwiney say her condition is weak and that as she naturally is not well a strike, even for a short time, is extremely dangerous in her case.

ANOTHER STRIKE OF SHOPMEN ON ALTON IMMINENT

Reported That Men Have Voted by Big Majority to Go Out

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 11.—Chicago and Alton shopmen have voted by a big majority to strike, if as a last resort, it is found necessary, according to Bernard Maloney official of the local shop federation. Immediate action is not expected by union officials.

Bert M. Jewell, head of the rail road department of the American Federation of Labor is sending an arbitrator here Monday, James Burns, an officer of the International Sheet Metal Workers Union. Since the strike Alton officials have recognized one local organization of employees but not the union, which is the basis of the dispute.

IS BOOKED ON MURDER CHARGE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Edward J. Daily, today was booked by the police on a charge of accessory to murder. The charge was based, according to the police on the accusation of a young woman with whom Daily eloped to Beardstown, Ill., where he was arrested recently that he had admitted he was one of four bandits who attacked Policeman Peter Pulst who was shot and killed five years ago in an alleged attempt to seize a payroll near the Chicago City Bank & Trust company. Daily denied the charge.

MRS. HALL WILL GIVE FINGER PRINTS

(By The Associated Press)
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 11.—Mrs. Frances Hall, widow of the Rev. E. W. Hall, who was murdered on the Phillips form with Mrs. Eleanor Mills, said tonight thru her attorney that she is willing to be finger printed if it would assist in running down the slayer of her husband. Certain authorities conducting the investigation had said that several persons who had been questioned would be asked for fingerprints.

ASSISTANCE SENT TO BURNING STEAMER

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 11.—Assistance was sent late today to a steamer afloat 75 miles off Cape Hatteras, wireless messages stating that the blaze which started in No. 2 hold was spreading and the crew was in jeopardy. The message indicated that the steamer was of greater magnitude than the vessel developed that that vessel was at Baltimore and steamship officials expressed belief that the craft was the Mundale. Several craft were dispatched to the steamer.

PRISONERS LOCK JAILER IN CELL AND ESCAPE

Howling in Unison by Jailer and Prisoners Brings Relief

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 11.—Howls of a jail full of prisoners attracted a pedestrian to the Sangamon county jail at 6:30 o'clock this morning and secured the release of Jailer Frank Shenneman, who fell a victim to the rule of two prisoners, who forced him at the point of his own gun to take their place behind the bars. Late this morning the two were still at large.

Ralph Karling of Effingham, held on a charge of criminal assault, and Ray Wells, negro of Springfield, charged with violating the "dry" laws, took equal parts in executing the plot by which they escaped.

Shortly before 6 o'clock this morning Wells feigned illness. He asked the jailer for some pills, then some toothache medicine and then asked to please give him three sheets of paper and an envelope. When Shenneman leaned over to get the paper, Karling jumped past Wells and plinked the jailer's arms to his sides, while the colored man took his revolver.

They drove the jailer into their cell, locked the door, and then manipulated the double iron doors and effected an exit. Immediately Shenneman started yelling, but as yells from the county jail are not unusual he demanded that all the prisoners yell with him. The chorus of yells accomplished nothing until a pedestrian stopped to listen and noticed the jailer's arms to his sides, while the colored man took his revolver.

REBEL GENERAL GIVES SELF UP

(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, Nov. 11.—Heliodoro Perez, rebel general who has been operating in the state of Hidalgo gave himself up to the federal commander at Pachuca this morning and is being held pending instructions from President Obregon. Perez was with Carranza during the flight which ended in the latter's death. He refused the new government's demands for the surrender of those involved and became a rebel. He explained today that he had been in rebellion solely because of loyalty to the late General Francisco Murguira but that the latter's death had released him from his promise.

INDICTMENTS AGAINST BERGER DISMISSED

(By The Associated Press)
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 11.—Three indictments charging Victor L. Berger and four prominent socialists with obstructing the government in the prosecution of the war, were dismissed by Federal Judge F. A. Geiger on May 8, of this year it became known today. The other defendants were Oscar Ameringer, formerly county organizer of the socialist party, now connected with the Oklahoma Leader, a socialist daily newspaper in Oklahoma City; Edmund T. Melms, present county organizer; Leo Krzycki, now general organizer of the national clothing workers' union and formerly prominent in the socialist party in Milwaukee; Louis A. Arnold, socialist tax commissioner and the Socialist Democratic Publishing company publisher of the Milwaukee Leader.

The indictments had been hanging fire because the government was prosecuting Mr. Berger on the same charge in Chicago.

TELLS WHY PEACE HAS BEEN DELAYED

Pittsburgh, Nov. 11.—International complications have resulted and not because of the fact of the armistice, but because of the "form of it," declared Major General Tasker H. Bliss, former chief of the American general staff and a member of the American delegation to the peace conference in an address before the Sons of the American Revolution tonight.

CHILEAN QUAKE OF GREAT MAGNITUDE

Buenos Aires, Nov. 11.—(By The A. P.) Officials at the La Plata Observatory say that the Chilean earthquake probably was of greater magnitude than any regard in America since the Copiapo quake in 1908. The seismograph needles were broken and twisted which did not happen at the time of the Valparaiso and Coaco earthquakes.

PRESIDENT HARDING HONORS MEMORY OF UNKNOWN SOLDIER

Places a Wreath of Remembrance on the Tomb in Arlington Cemetery—Ceremony Marked With Simplicity and Sincerity—Scene as Gripping as That of Homecoming

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—President Harding laid a wreath of remembrance today on the tomb of the unknown soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. It was set there as a wordless greeting from the heart of America to a valorous, honored son and commemorated the first anniversary of his homecoming from France.

The utter simplicity and sincerity of the tribute today was in a way as gripping to the few who saw it made as was the day long tide of emotional fervor that marked that homecoming.

It set a custom for the national observance of Armistice Day in the future that will make the unknown from France the keeper of America's annual expression of pride and glory in her sons who fought in France, be they living or dead.

There were many other tributes brought to the tomb during the day. Sometimes little groups of men and women from distant cities made the journey to lay bright flowers on the moulded stone work that holds the body of a nameless American, sometimes the blossoms were laid by men moved to individual tribute to the dead. It was thus that General Pershing's offering was placed.

The general had hoped to go alone to carry his tribute to the fallen to the tomb, but he was called elsewhere to talk with patriotic men on living issues in the nation's life and reluctantly assigned his aide to the duty. A mere handful of spectators and a little detachment of armed men made up of soldiers, sailors and marines to represent the three fighting services of the nation were at hand when the president appeared with Secretary Weeks and Secretary Denby to pay the nation's honors to the dead. Cavalry had escorted the presidential party from the white house but had turned aside before the tomb was reached. There was no word spoken except the commands that moved the rifles of the guard of honor to salute.

The president seemed to feel a deep significance in the moment as he sensed the solemn approval of the hundred million of his countrymen. He placed the great wreath against the stone work of the tomb, then stepped back to pause a moment looking down on the plain block of masonry that covers a plain soldier chosen to typify the greatest among the nation's heroes. Every eye was fixed on the still figure of the president standing with bared head bent as the in reverry. Slowly the president raised his hand in military salute to the dead, his shoulder straightened, then he turned away and a moment later was returning to Washington.

There are thousands of other war dead from France sleeping among the quiet hills of Arlington. Their gleaming headstones flank the great amphitheater on one side as those other glorious dead of older wars flank it with the time greyed monuments and markers on the other. And while the nation paid its simple tribute, so loving relatives did not forget that armistice day is above all the day of the men of the American army in France and their brothers in arms at home who stood ready to join the ranks overseas. As the day passed there blossomed among the newer grave stones flowers of every hue, rivaling the splendor of autumnal coloring in the woods that frame the field of the dead.

MAN'S BODY FOUND THRU DOG'S VIGIL

(By The Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 11.—Refusing to give up the vigil it had kept for three days and three nights, "Spots" a mongrel dog today brought about recovery of the body of his master who had drowned in the river near here. William Heinig, according to his widow disappeared from home early Wednesday night as did the dog. Today Mrs. Heinig looking from her home toward the river observed "Spots" waiting at a point on the river bank where he had been seen daily since Thursday. Confiding her gravest fears to neighbors the river was dragged and Heinig's body was recovered.

Mrs. Heinig told police her husband had become dependent due to illness.

AMNESTY PARADE IN WASHINGTON BRINGS NEAR RIOT

Tries to Enter White House Grounds But is Turned Back

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Petitioners for general amnesty for imprisoned violators of war laws today utilized the spirit of Armistice Day in another endeavor to influence President Harding to pardon the sixty-four men still serving sentences under the espionage act.

With a band of five pieces playing the Marseillaise and two color bearers carrying American flags at the head, the amnesty seekers, more than 200 strong and with banners, descended upon the white house soon after the president had returned from Arlington where he had placed a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier. They had obtained a permit to parade on Pennsylvania avenue before the white house grounds but after doing this they turned into West Executive avenue toward the white house offices and their trouble began.

The procession proceeded quietly until it reached the entrance to the grounds near the executive offices when a husky park police lieutenant stepped out choked off the band in the midst of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and informed the leader that they were on government reservation ground and the permit was invalid.

The band thereupon disappeared but those participating in the procession remained with the police officers when a husky park police lieutenant stepped out choked off the band in the midst of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and informed the leader that they were on government reservation ground and the permit was invalid.

The band thereupon disappeared but those participating in the procession remained with the police officers when a husky park police lieutenant stepped out choked off the band in the midst of "Onward Christian Soldiers" and informed the leader that they were on government reservation ground and the permit was invalid.

"Treason ain't no crime—Benedict Arnold Patriotic Association, Inc." "Greeting and Good Cheer—Sneak Thieves Inc." "We Extend Our Sympathy—Pickpockets Association." "We Want Out Too—Chicken Thieves Society." Police had to intervene between the two sets of demonstrators and when quiet was restored the head of the anti-amnesty group Hubert B. Mayer, of New York City, who said he recently was honorably discharged from the Sixteenth Infantry Fifth Division after a long period of service including two years overseas, explained his purpose.

A THOUGHT

What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us who can be against us?—Romans 8:31. God sleeps in the stone, dreams in the animal, wakes in the man.—Goethe.

There are wide differences of opinion on the merit of the provisions included in the proposed new constitution for Illinois. However, upon the desirability of one item in the constitution Morgan county people should be in entire agreement. The constitution as proposed would do away with minority representation and give Morgan county a resident member of the legislature. For years past we have been voting for members our friends in Sangamon county selected for our kindly consideration.

The presence of a selfish motive in nearly every possible situation and proposal should not make any one cynical. The very fact that the backers of the "thing" are after a profit makes its success more certain.

Men do those things best, in which they have a chance to profit personally. It is the old law of achievement, working toward a definite goal—harvesting the crop from toil.

The profit sought by the force of selfishness, of course, is not always money. It may be fame or the inner satisfaction to one's vanity in having accomplished a good deed. Even charity, according to psychologists, usually is a manifestation of vanity—makes the giver "feel better."

EDUCATION WEEK.

Two years ago Dr. P. P. Claxton, former commissioner of education, instituted the observance of the first week in December as "Education Week." The American Legion last year became interested in the perpetuation of such a week and took the initiative in inviting the National Educational association and other organizations to co-operate in the observance of "American Education Week." This year the United States Bureau of Education is co-operating with the American Legion and the National Education Association in inviting every American organization, club, church, school, newspaper, magazine, theater and individual and bodies of every description to participate in making the week, December 3-9, a real nation-wide revival of educational enthusiasm.

The Americanism commission of the American Legion called upon the commissioner of education to invite President Harding to issue a proclamation for the observance of this week. The president has given assurance of his desire and willingness to do this.

Marshall Foch's Armistice Day letter included this sentiment: "Tempered again by this memory, there should come a horror of selfishness, barren quarrels and demoralizing pessimism." There is food for reflection in this statement for the world at large as well as the French people.

It may be that the farmer makes a mistake in considering high freight rates as the basic trouble with his business. Figures recently compiled show that not more than 8 per cent of the total outlay of the farmer is expended for freight transportation, directly or indirectly.

Sangamon county voters at the recent election authorized the removal of a tuberculosis sanatorium. Let us hope that the people in the adjoining county have a greater unanimity of opinion than prevails here as to just how the funds for the maintenance of the sanatorium shall be provided.

The U. S. chamber of commerce which took an effective part in working out a plan of fuel distribution in view of a shortage following the five months' shut down, has just announced that the shortage period is over. A speeding up of production and the unusually warm weather have combined to straighten out the coal situation so far as quantity is concerned.

It is reported that a number of Illinois mills have shut down the past week because of the lack of orders. While the supply question has been automatically taken care of, the price remains to be corrected.

Now it is proposed to raise a fund by private subscription for prosecution of cases growing out of the board of education scandal in Chicago. Certainly it is time for some plan to be worked out whereby the proper and necessary prosecutions in this state shall be paid for from public rather than private funds.

Business men sometimes feel that conditions are not just what they should be, but the year 1922 has shown remarkable progress along some lines. In the first 9 months of the year housing contracts totaled more than for the same period in any previous year of the nation's history. The prospects are for a still more active period of home building.

Values

By Berton Braley

THREE things give to life its worth, Three things make it better, braver, Adding to its joy and mirth, Filling it with zest and savor: They are easy to possess And your heart will never rue them. Here are keys to happiness, Friendship, Faith and Love—hold to them!

FRIENDSHIP, if you want, is yours, If you only go about it; It's a treasure that endures, Poor, indeed, you are without it. Faith—though long and hard the years— It will send you singing through them; Love will conquer doubts and fears; Friendship, Faith and Love—hold to them!

FRIENDSHIP, Faith and Love—these three Make the struggle worth the trying, Make life big and broad and free, Take away the sting of dying; Sorrow, trouble, pain, defeat, Only strengthen and renew them, They shall keep you brave and sweet, Friendship, Faith and Love—hold to them!

MANAGED CAMPAIGN FOR SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE

Mention was made some time since of the fact that Miss Susan Reblum, a graduate of Illinois Woman's college in the class of 1908, was manager for Judge Florence E. Allen of Cleveland in her campaign for election to the Ohio supreme court.

Complete unofficial returns from the state of Ohio show that Judge Allen was elected judge of the supreme court by a majority of 242,556 votes over her opponent, Judge Benson W. Hough of Delaware.

Miss Reblum has for some time been in Y. W. C. A. work on the Pacific coast and secured a leave of absence in order to conduct the campaign for Judge Allen.

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRA MOUTLINED

Congressman Yates Will Tell of European Visit in War Time in Armistice Day Address—Fine Musical Program.

Congressman Richard Yates will be greeted today with a large audience at the High School auditorium. The doors will be opened at 3:30 and the Memorial Service will begin at 4 o'clock. Several of the clergy will take part in the preliminary part of the service. A large chorus made up of college men and women and picked members of the High school chorus will lead in the singing of the national hymns. Mr. Arnold Lovejoy will conduct the singing. He will also bring the Illinois College Glee Club and lead them in a special number.

The subject of Ex-Governor Yates address will be "The Meaning of Armistice Day." He has been in France, was there shortly after the close of the war, and knows what the American boys went thru. As a congressman, Mr. Yates has been a fearless advocate of the bill for adjusted compensation for ex-service men.

It is expected that a large number of legion men will attend. The Committee of the Chamber of Commerce feels that Jacksonville will show a high sense of reverence for the dead and of hope for permanent peace by crowding the High School at this service.

RED CROSS SUNDAY

Warren G. Harding, the President of the United States and also President of the National American Red Cross has proclaimed November 12, as Red Cross Sunday, inviting the people "to unite with their spiritual leaders in such observance of it as may promote a renewed consecration to the gospel of service, based on divine injunction and sanctioned by all good conscience."

Messages have been sent to all the pastors of the churches asking them to bring before the people of their congregations the significance of the basis of Red Cross, namely, "SERVICE." It is hoped that the people of Morgan county will thoughtfully consider the work of the Red Cross in their services today.

FINE PROGRAM WAS GIVEN AT WINCHESTER

Armistice Day Observed in Fitting Manner in Scott County Town—Other Winchester News of Special Interest.

Winchester, Nov. 11.—Armistice Day was suitably observed in Winchester, the program for the day opening with a concert in the park by the band under the direction of Fred Ely. At 10:30 there was a flag raising ceremony and later three minutes of silence was observed.

At noon a splendid dinner was served in the Christian church to members of the Legion and the band. The commander of the post, Dr. Leib, gave a short talk which was followed by an address by Rev. Mr. Corrie, and brief remarks by S. G. Smith.

At 2 o'clock all assembled in the high school auditorium, where the program opened with an orchestra selection. Dr. William O. Reilly had charge of the program as chairman of the day. The audience sang America, after which Rev. Mr. Elmore delivered a strong address on patriotic themes.

The next number on the program was a violin solo by David Lashmet of Manchester, accompanied by Mrs. Eckman. The first number was "The Cane Brake" by Goshen and as an encore the young man gave "A Romance" by Becker.

Later came a splendid address by Rev. A. O'Mullane. At this time Dr. O'Reilly took occasion to thank all the committees, members of the band, those who took part in the program and the ladies who served the dinner at noon. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Corrie.

Pleasant Social Function

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Waters delightfully entertained the members of the band and orchestra to the number of forty-five. County Superintendent of Schools Miss Olive Wells and Miss Marinda Coultas, accompanist for the orchestra. Guy Faul, a special friend of the band was also present, and a three course dinner was served.

Following the serving of the dinner came a program of toasts with Miss Wells as toastmistress. Guy Faul gave the opening toast and response was made by Mr. Waters and J. E. Coultas. Edwin Lashmet gave a toast to the hostess and response was made by Mrs. Waters. Tom Watt gave a toast to the band and to Fred Ely, director. Donald Henry gave a reminiscence of a trip to Lake Matanzas. In their speeches, Mr. Faul and Mr. Coultas emphasized the worth while service given by Mr. Waters to the Winchester band. Amos Cohagan's toast was his most embarrassing moment when he was on the stage in a band minstrel. Russell Bean gave "The Boys' Appreciation of Mr. Waters," and Miss Wells closed the program with a farewell toast.

Mrs. Waters was assisted by Mrs. Clarence McDonald, Mrs. Sol Hains-further, Mrs. Albert Coultas, Mrs. Grant Mader, Mrs. Flora McCarty, Mrs. Nellie Dolan and Miss Nellie Lashmet.

Mr. Waters left Saturday noon for St. Paul, where he has an excellent position awaiting him, and will be director of five bands located in five different towns. His friends here wish him success in his new location and he will be greatly missed in the community in which he has for so long been a resident.

News Notes

A box social and entertainment given at Victory school was well attended by the patrons and their friends. The pupils, under direction of the teacher, Miss Ella May Lashmet, gave a pleasing program of music and readings.

Miss Julia Hankins, teacher at the Eureka school, gave the pupils a weiner roast Friday afternoon which was very much enjoyed.

Report on Meeting of Lutheran Women

The annual convention of the central conference of the Women's Missionary society of the Illinois Synod of the United Lutheran church in America met in St. John's Lutheran church of Meredosia, November 2 and 3. Most of the churches sent delegates. In all there were twenty-three delegates reported. Mrs. C. B. Newcomer, the state president, was present, as was also Mrs. H. D. Hoover, representing the executive committee of the general society. Among the delegates were some of the most prominent women in the Lutheran church of this district.

The Thursday afternoon session was taken up with reports from the officers and department secretaries. The reports showed progress in all activities. Miss Emma May, of the Meredosia society, had charge of the literature exhibit and reported for her department.

Mrs. W. C. Heidenreich brought welcome greetings from the Bluffs society.

The evening session was especially well attended. Rev. W. C. Heidenreich led in the devotional service. Mrs. H. D. Hoover had charge of the service introducing Mrs. Jennie Denhart, the conference president, who gave her annual report. Two short plays, "The Elixir of Youth" and "The Oriental Schools" were presented under the direction of Mrs. Whitten of Carthage, Ill.

Miss Charlotte Hollerbach then addressed the audience in her pleasing and impressive manner, telling of her work as missionary in India, where she has charge of the lace industry.

Among the pleasing features of the evening service was the music furnished by the choir, which rendered two anthems.

On Friday morning Mrs. W. H. Nichols, wife of Dr. Nichols, pastor of the Springfield church, gave the report of the biennial convention of the general society, held at Pittsburgh, Pa., in October.

H. D. Condran of Quincy addressed the convention on "Our Standard of Excellence."

In the afternoon Miss Moody of Fillmore gave an address on "Our Funds." Miss Epling, the wife of Rev. T. B. Epling, pastor of the 4th Street Lutheran church, Beardstown, gave the monologue, "Listening In."

Mrs. M. Newcomer, state president, addressed the convention.

During the convention, the local society put forth every effort to make the guests stay as pleasant as possible.

After the evening service Thursday

JUDGE SABATH SAYS "SEE IT"

Judge Joseph Sabath, Chicago's famous divorce magistrate, who has presided over the "separation branch" of the Superior Court for several years, and who is perhaps the best known and most prominent jurist who listens to the woes of the martial unhappy, says: "If all married couples and, for that matter, single folks who are matrimonially inclined, would see the play 'Why Wives Go Wrong,' perhaps a great many of their problems would be ironed out. At least they would be forewarned by its truthfulness."

Of particular interest to our citizens is the fact that "Why Wives Go Wrong," the stage play presented here by the original New York and Chicago cast at the Grand Theatre on Saturday next, Nov. 18th.

"Flesh and Blood"

He escaped for vengeance—returned defeated, happy. 'Greater Love Hath no Man'

It is an inspired performance in a story throbbing with human emotions. The pathos of this buffeted creature—this pitiful figure who is hunted by the law for a crime of which he is innocent will be caught by every spectator—no matter whether he is endowed with sentiment or not. You see him break jail and your sympathy is acute. Will he make a successful get-away? But the eager eye of the law is on his track. And to avoid detection, he is forced to play the part of a helpless cripple—a part which stamps Chaney as a superb artist. He stumps through Chinatown, ever careful to avoid arrest, though fully determined to look upon the fair beauty of his daughter—a girl he cannot even touch, much less admit his relationship with her. He finds his enemy, but at the moment that he triumphs, he is brought up sharp with the fact that his daughter loves the financier's son. Rather than bring any disillusionment to her he forgives his enemy and calmly returns to prison.

FREEDOM OF THE "SEES" GRANTED AGAIN BY FLORIDA MAYOR

Typical group of feminine bathers enjoying merry-go-round ride on St. Petersburg beach. "I stand where I did last year on bathing beach censorship," declared Mayor Frank Pulver of St. Petersburg, Fla., who asked recently if there would be any censorship rules laid down this year. When summer-loving tourists flocked to "St. Pete" last winter the Purity league in the Sunshine City demanded that the millionaires mayor make the bathers dress "modestly" to save the youths and the morals of the nation. Mayor Pulver, after personally inspecting the suits worn by the fair sex on the sand, gave the scanty suits his o. k. and said: "There must be something wrong with those who see anything indecent in clothes which give the girls and women freedom of movement and thereby aid in promoting the health of the wearers."

TRAGEDY MARKS CHICAGO ARMISTICE DAY

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—With head bared as the city's whistles sounded in observance of armistice day an unidentified man believed to have been a former "blue devil" of France fell to his death from the rear of an elevated train today.

The only identification was found on a card in the pocket. It read: "Monsieur Theophile Lezium No. 1573 Rue LaBelle Boulevard, St. Denis."

On the opposite side was inscribed: "The day we never forget, November 11, 1918."

Gainesville, Ga., Nov. 11.—By The A. P.—Development of a satisfactory method of controlling the boll weevil on short staple, or upland cotton, was announced here tonight by Dr. Wilmon Newell, plant commissioner for the state plant board and director of the University of Florida experiment station.

The announcement was made as a result of research work by George D. Smith, assistant entomologist conducted under the auspices of the state plant board.

"Upon being informed this morning that the long haired men and short haired women behind this movement intended to parade on Armistice Day," he said, "I communicated by views the subject to various patriotic organizations and the response was such as to lead me to believe that it was entirely wrong."

Speakers at the amnesty meeting which like the parade was held under the auspices of the joint amnesty committee, took their themes from the banners carried in the parade. These banners bore quotations from an address recently made by Senator Borah of Idaho at an amnesty meeting in Chicago and told the president that to respect the American ideal of free speech is the worst tribute to the unknown soldiers and that "one of the ideals the unknown soldier died for was freedom of speech."

The amnesty petitioners after the speechmaking went to the Chevy Chase country club to picket when President Harding arrived there to play golf. While the parade was in progress the president was in his study. A committee sought to see him but as no appointment had been made they left a letter to be presented to him.

The committee which was composed of Edmund C. Evans, Mrs. Walter Cope and Dr. Franklin Edgerton of Pennsylvania; Robertson Trowbridge of New York; Mercer Green Johnson of Baltimore and Mrs. Amy Scott Baker of Washington, D. C., informed the president they represented many thousands of people in the United States who warmly cherish American principles of free speech, freedom of assembly, a free press and other so-called civil liberties.

MORTGAGE ON WOODFILL FARM BURNED SATURDAY

Ceremony Takes Place in Palace Theater, New York City

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—While several thousand persons who packed the Palace theater to-night looked on, Supreme Court Justice McCook burned a copy of the $3,000 mortgage on the Kentucky home of Sergeant Samuel Woodfill, designated by General John J. Pershing as the outstanding hero of the world war. The mortgage had been lifted by popular subscription which totaled more than $10,000. After paying off the mortgage a $500 insurance policy and trust fund for the remainder of the amount were created.

Flanked on every side by dignitaries of the army and navy Sergeant Woodfill listened to the reading of the citation which gave him nationwide fame.

FOREIGNERS ARE CHARGED EXTRA RATES

BREMEN.—(By the A. P.)—

Americans requiring the services of a Bremen physician or surgeon will hereafter be charged a fee nine times larger than what is ordinarily paid by the natives. This in accordance with a schedule adopted by the local medical association.

Visitors from other foreign countries also will have to pay at their rates, in proportion to the esteem in which their respective currencies are held by the local doctors. Although the dollar commonly commands the highest respect of foreign monies among Germans, United States citizens suffer less than those of a number of other countries in the new tariff. Swedes will be charged 13 times the usual fee, Swiss ten times, English and Dutch nine times, and French and Italians six times.

New rates for natives have been announced by the association. Advice will be given for 120 marks during day. Together with a consultation, this service will be rendered in the day time for 200 marks, and at night for 300. An ordinary day visit will cost 200 marks, an urgent call 400, a night visit 600, and a second prescription or a hasty diagnosis without investigation 100.

A young surgeon here requires 500,000 marks capital now to provide himself with a suitable establishment on which to "hang out his shingle." It costs him 200,000 marks to buy the necessary instruments alone. A syringe which cost 10 marks before the war now sells for 2,300 marks. Other items range from 120 marks for a dozen surgical needles to 40,000 for an instrument cabinet. Installation of an apparatus for Roentgen-ray examinations would cost from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 marks.

In this connection attention is called to the rapid increase in the number of doctors practicing in Germany, resulting in repeated warnings to the rising generation to follow some other profession. In 1886 there were 16,000 doctors in the country. Twenty years later this number had swelled to 32,000 in 1920, to 36,000, and apparently by 1925 it will have reached 50,000. Before the war there was a doctor to every 12,000 inhabitants, while now the average is about one to every 1,500 people.

GROWS OUT OF CURB VIOLINIST CLASS

CHICAGO—Declaring that he was "no longer a crub violinist," Ward Baker of Chicago, recently announced plans to organize an orchestra, chorus and band of 125 instrumentalists and fifty singers, exclusively American citizens who speak English, to promote American-made music.

Mr. Baker, who feels that his mission is to be a musician of the masses, said that he "learned the pulse of the people by playing to groups of them on the street as a licensed street player." He recently gave a concert in a Michigan avenue hall which his audience received, Chicago critics agreed, with pronounced cordiality. One critic said that "he has evidently built up a following who like to hear him."

"We must set a standard for American opera and orchestra music and make America the leading country in music," said Mr. Baker. "Then patrons and impresarios will not be needed and there will be no more starvation of composers."

SANCTIONS WHISTLING AS CERTIFIED ART

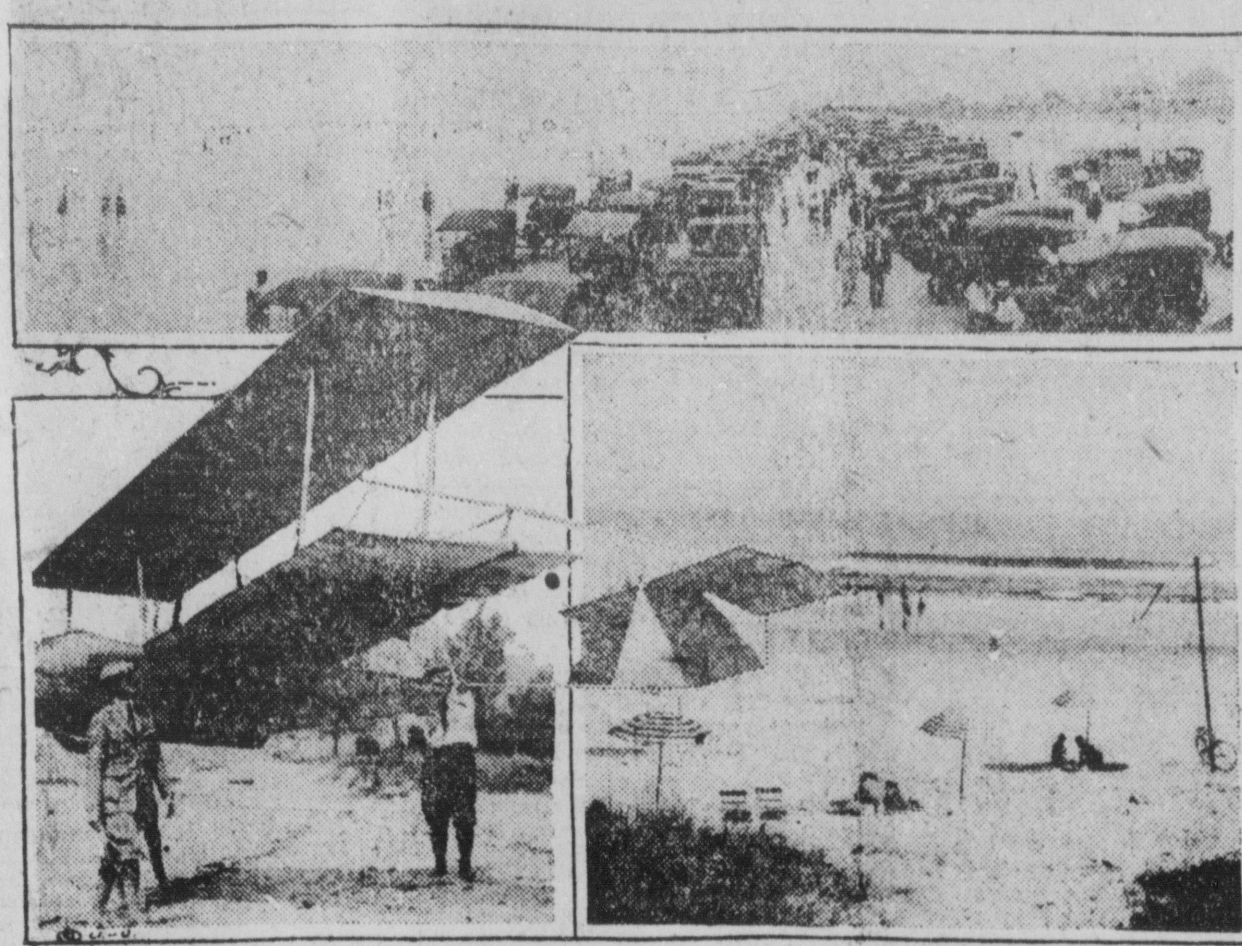

Berkeley, Calif.—Whistling as an "art and process" soon may be added to the curriculum of some public schools in California. The state board of education has granted Miss Blanche Adella Hawkins, a senior at the University of California here, a certificate authorizing her to "conduct the art and process of whistling" in the schools.

Authorities say this is the first time in the history of education that such a certificate has been granted.

"I have always felt," Miss Hawkins said, "that whistling could be made a real musical accomplishment and the best thing to begin instruction in whistling, as with every other study, is in childhood."

GETTING BREAKS IN FOOTBALL

"Bo" McMillin Discusses That Important Feature of the Game—Breaks Decide Many Games.

By "BO" McMILLIN

All-America Quarterback.

What part does luck play in the winning or the losing of a football game. Ofttimes the results are attributed to either good or bad luck.

If you will allow me to substitute "breaks" for luck I will agree with the sport writers in saying that the breaks in a game often decide the outcome. In Centre's first game with Harvard I remember of hearing Fitzgerald, their quarterback, saying "Wait for the breaks, boys, we'll get one in a minute." And sure enough they did.

Soon after the start of the second quarter Murphy, the lightest man to every play in the stadium, was sent in to punt for us. The kick went straight up in the air and out of bounds on our own 30-yard line.

This was the break that the Crimson were looking for. They had little trouble in carrying the ball over in successive plunges because the pep and light was taken out of our men by such a poor kick.

Harvard waits for breaks. If one will read the history of the Harvard victories he will note that the majority of their drives which result in touchdowns were inspired by a break in their favor. They are coached to hold their opponents and wait for the breaks.

In 1919 Centre won from the University of Indiana because we took advantage of a break. We had battled thru three periods and there was only about four minutes left in the fourth. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of Indiana. The extra band had formed to lead the victory march.

Just at this time an Indiana back fumbled on their 40-yard line and a Centre man recovered. I used a silent signal and shot a pass to Armstrong which gained 15 yards. Before the "Hooiers" could recover from the shock of the fumble and the completed pass I had shot Roberts over the goal line in three plunges.

We made another touchdown in the remaining minute and a half on an intercepted pass and the final score was Centre, 12; Indiana, 0.

Now I do not think that you could attribute this victory to luck, for if we hadn't possessed the power and fight to take advantage of that break the odds would have had their parade.

Success depends on substance. When a good player is injured and has to be taken out of the game the coach often complains of hard luck, and if the game results in a loss for his team the sport writers will say that the winning team was a bit lucky.

Of course this is an unfortunate circumstance, but the successful coach will be prepared for just such an emergency and will have a trained substitute to take his place.

I believe that the strength of a winning football team lies in the strength of the substitutes. If it had not been for the substitutes at Centre last year being almost strong as the regulars we could not have had the success we did have.

I have noticed that a great many of our smaller colleges teams are built around one man and if he has to leave the game his team goes to pieces. A successful football team cannot depend upon one man but must work as a machine to come out on top. It is true that all good coaches are not fortunate in having capable substitutes and he might go thru several games without needing them, but in the long run he will feel the need.

I believe that it is folly for a coach to start his eleven best men in a game because he is sure to need a good fresh man when the breaks go against him.

Quite a few sport writers said that Centre was lucky to beat West Virginia in 1919. We unquestionably outplayed them in original nation should remain contented with a negation. Armistice is a negation, it is a standstill of arms, it is a cessation of fighting and we are so bent on a cessation of fighting that we are even willing to give our arms away.

"It is a singular circumstance that which Mr. Morgenthau had in part advised that while we prescribed the conditions of the armistice we did not concern in the establishment of permanent peace. That of course was brought about by a group in the United States senate who preferred personal partisan motives to the honor of their country and the peace of the world. They do not represent the United States, because the United States is moving forward and they are slipping backward. Where their slipping will end God only will determine.

Reflects on Difference

"And I have also been reflecting upon the radical difference between Armistice and peace. Armistice, as I have said, is a negation; it is the refraining from force. But peace is a very positive and conservative thing as the world stands today because it must be brought about by the systematic maintenance of common understanding and by cultivation—not by amicable phrases. The active cooperation and justice is a greater than than any kind of expediency.

"America has always stood for justice and always will stand for it. Fanny persons who are unstanding in the way will presently find that their weakness is a match for the strength of a more providence. If you will pardon an invalid for putting on his hat I will promise not to talk thru it."

"I think then we may receive today our faith in the future that we are celebrating the past. The future in our hands and if we are not equal to it, the shame will be ours and none others. I thank you from a very full heart, my friends for this demonstration of kindness by you and bid you and the nation Godspeed."

The singing of Southern melodies by a chorus opened the program and Mr. Wilson then appeared. He was presented with baskets of flowers from Virginia, his native state; New Jersey, his home state and the District of Columbia. The former president shook hands with each of the little flower girls and thanked them.

After the program of exercises had been concluded there appeared to be no disposition on the part of the crowd to break up. So Mr. and Mrs. Wilson appeared at an upstairs window and were cheered time and again.

KEMALISTS ARE STILL INSISTING ON EVACUATION

Again Ask Allies to Withdraw Troops from Constantinople

(By The Associated Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 8.—The Kemalists have reiterated their request that the allies withdraw their land and naval forces from Constantinople.

Continued insistence by the Kemalists upon the abolition of inter-allied control of the gendarmerie, customs, railroads and censorship of the Turkish newspapers has caused a recrudescence of the crisis and the belief is voiced that it may be necessary to proclaim martial law.

Rafet Pasha the nationalist governor of Angora has summoned Omar Yver Pasha first court chamberlain and Col Ekrem Bey commander of the imperial guard from the palace, informing them that they must consider themselves detached from the imperial court and henceforth subject to orders from Angora.

PARADE FEATURED ARMISTICE DAY

Well Ordered Events Gave Both Dignity and Solemnity to Observance of the Day.

The Armistice parade which moved promptly at 11 o'clock Saturday morning was in every way worthy of the occasion. The committee had worked zealously during weeks in arranging for this parade and met with hearty co-operation on the part of business men and the people generally.

There were several handsome floats, each depicting some phase of war time work or war result. A Red Cross float had a prominent place and in a suggestive way gave emphasis to the work of "the greatest mother in the world."

Men from the occupational center at Jacksonville State hospital had their part in the parade and the State School for the Deaf made a very large contribution, not only in the matter of floats, but in the number of those marching.

Marshals of the parade were J. L. Henry, V. R. Riley, C. L. Reid, Scott Green, Clark Green and A. D. Arnold. The Illinois college band furnished music under the leadership of J. Bart Johnson. A group of drummers in uniform gave a suggestion of the soldiers of an earlier period. This group included Charles DeSilva, Allen Fernandes, Abner King, Will DeFrates and Ben Correa.

One float included a reproduction of a war time trench surrounded by wire entanglements. In another a wounded soldier could be seen lying on his side evidently writing a letter that might be his final message to friends at home.

The Jacksonville Howitzer company was well represented under command of Captain James. The Kiwanis club float was in the colors of the club. E. W. Brown, Jr., was at the wheel and others in the car were F. E. Harker, president of the club, E. W. Brown, Jr., and M. E. Gilbert.

Two especially well designed floats represented the veterans bureau at the state hospital. One memorialized the fact that Illinois ex-service men are to receive the bonus. The order of the parade was about as follows:

Mounted marshals, Illinois college band, Illinois college students, Ex-service men, representatives of veterans bureau, howitzer company, G. A. R. veterans, Kiwanis club float, U. S. Veterans bureau float, cars representing D. A. R. and W. R. C., farm bureau cars, Woman's college girls, Jacksonville high school, children from ward schools, Junior high school, Boy Scout troops, DeSilva drum corps, Jacksonville firemen, Spanish war veterans, Chamber of Commerce cars, Morgan County Good Roads association float, Military company, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts and boys and girls with red, white and blue caps from Illinois State School for the Deaf. The I. S. D. delegation also included two floats.

The Morgan County Good Roads association float mounted on the Eli Bridge company float, presented a huge map showing the Morgan county hard roads already built and the hard roads needed. The well ordered parade served to give fitting emphasis to the meaning of the day.

BERLIN—Among three prominent German educationalists who have accepted invitations to lecture before American universities the coming winter is Professor Behrandt Pick, director of the Gotha collections of coins. The Gotha exhibit was established in 1712 and includes 100,000 pieces, its Greek and Roman sections being especially noteworthy.

Doctor Pick also is a lecturer at Jena university. His work in the United States, during which he will discuss numismatics at various seats of learning, will begin in October.

Doctor J. Elbogen, professor of history and literature of the Jews at the Berlin college for the study of Judaism, and abbi Doctor Perlis of Koenigsberg have been engaged for three months of lecture in America. They are to appear in the curriculum of the Jewish institute for religion recently founded by Dr. Stephan S. Wise, and will speak on Jewish history and Biblical interpretation.

Big Gift Campaign Starts November 15

The biggest campaign ever staged in Jacksonville for the stimulation of business and of interest in the merchandising facilities of the city will have its official opening Wednesday of this week. Enthusiasm among merchants is high for the success of the venture, which will cost them thousands of dollars, but which is expected to pay for itself by the increase in immediate and future business for the city.

The merchants feel that when local and district buyers get the habit of expecting to find what they want in Jacksonville shops their merchandise, of equal quality and assortment with that of such large cities, with prices equally or more reasonable because of lessened overhead, they will buy and move goods in the city.

The grand prize of the Gift campaign, which is as much a display as a gift campaign, arrived in time for the Armistice Day parade Saturday.

Paige Sport Grand Prize.

Every one who saw the nickel trimmed Paige 6-66 sport model in the parade was dazzled by the class of this grand prize, one of the most attractive special models of American-built cars on display anywhere in the country. It is of a rich mouse color, with pencil blue upholstery, harmonious disc wheels, nickel radiator, hub caps and rims, and German silver spotlight, dash-line and cowl fittings.

A Ford touring car, also seen in the parade of Armistice Day, is the second prize. The finest of merchandise in every line will be on display at the room being fitted up for the purpose at the North central corner of the square, which will have its grand opening Wednesday. Extra chance for being one of the prize winners of the campaign will be given to all who attend the opening of the exhibit.

A great barrel containing tickets representing every purchaser and every purchase of merchandise from the merchants co-operating in the enterprise from November 15 to January 1 will be kept at the display room daily, and special measures to safeguard the records will be taken by guard and lock.

A list of the prizes follows:

Grand prize, Paige 666, Larchmont sport model car. Secured through L. F. O'Donnell.
Ford touring car, secured through Lukeman Motor Co.
Dining room suite, William and Mary design, secured through Andre & Andre.
Console table, mahogany, colonial design, Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie.

FREE AIR STUNTS AT PARK THIS AFTERNOON

Flyers Will be at Field all Day—Will Explain Technique of Airplaning and Mechanics of Machines—Aerial Bombardment to Start Free Stunt Show—Morris Peckham Has New Plane.

The flyers who were brought to Jacksonville as the personnel of the Legion Air Circus yesterday will today give a free show at the field. The Armistice Day crowd was diminished greatly by the rain in and around the city, and many of those who had bought tickets were not able to attend. One of the flyers was halted three times between St. Louis and Jacksonville by heavy storms, arriving just in time to take part. Others were not able to come at all, and the big dirigible was not able to make the trip.

Nevertheless the Legion show was one of many thrills, and many people of Jacksonville and vicinity were passengers in the performing planes. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Franklin, aged 75 and 63 respectively, were given one of the fastest rides of the circus. T. M. Tomlinson, after experiencing for the first time the sensation of flying, announces it as his intention to make a business trip to St. Louis Monday by plane.

As the result of the show Morris Peckham of the Cloverleaf forces has a new airplane, and an aviator from Springfield has already made him an offer for its repurchase after taking it up for a flight.

The flyers expressed high appreciation of the hospitality of Jacksonville people, and regret that the weather conditions prevented the large crowds expected from outlying districts from attendance. The Jacksonville crowd was most orderly and the easiest to handle and to keep from swarming over the field of any in their experience. They intend to return in the spring, and invite all to visit the Robertson headquarters in St. Louis, as well as to see the free stunts and free demonstrations this morning and afternoon.

Aerial bombing will announce the opening of the program this afternoon.

The Legion boys worked hard for the show, and several hundred dollars to their credit mark the only financial gain of the exhibition, the air men losing on their gamble with the weather. Great credit, according to the aviators, is due to four or five Legion men who gave to the fullest of their time and co-operation to make the show a big drawing card.

The Legion show judges were Jess Henry, Lee Caldwell and Miss Grace Roberts, assisted by Little Miss Frances Lacey.

FIGHTING ILLINI LIVES UP TO ITS NAME

RESET DOPE BUCKET BY ELIMINATING THE WISCONSIN TEAM 3-0

One Score is Booted Over in the Third Period by Rune Clark from the Fifteen Yard Line—Illinois Was on Offensive After the First Period—Illini Break up Many Passes

(By The Associated Press)
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 11.—Illinois, twice beaten in the Eastern Conference championship race, sprung the biggest surprise of the season today by vanquishing the Wisconsin eleven 3 to 0 before a 30,000 homecoming crowd it packed Randall field.
The defeat virtually eliminates Wisconsin, which had been regarded as a strong contender, from the championship race. A perfect 15 yard drop kick, booted by Quarterback Rune Clark, brother of Patsy Clark of Illinois fame, gave Illinois its single score in the third period after an aerial attack had carried the ball to Wisconsin's 7-yard line. Two other tries for field goals in the closing period failed to pass within the goal posts and the visitors held their early lead which gave them the victory.
Neither team could score in the first half, although the Illini in the opening minutes of play carried the ball to the two yard line where an impregnable line turned back the battering of Taft, Wisconsin's full back.

LITTLE GIANTS FIGHT LOSING BATTLE IN EAST

Go Down to Defeat Before Strong Washington and Jefferson Team

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 11.—The Little Giants from Wabash college, tackling savagely and fighting every minute, made a game attempt to stop the victorious rush of the Washington and Jefferson eleven—and failed. Coach Neale's powerful and undefeated machine battered its way to a 32 to 6 victory.
The Wabash touchdown, made in the final period when Aul recovered a fumble and sprinted 55 yards, won the fighting visitor's an ovation from the W. & J. stands. It was spectacular play of the game.
The Presidents were faster, more powerful and had a more diversified attack. A delayed drive thru the line was the only play that gained ground for Wabash.

In the field period, a forward pass put the ball on the Wabash one yard line and Futey went over. In the second quarter Spillers got a touchdown on a 35 yards run and Erickson made one, after a Wabash fumble had been recovered by Neale's men. In the third period two severe penalties stopped W. & J. when it threatened to score.
Allen dove over the line for a touchdown in the fourth period. Then W. & J. started to march toward another score but a fumble gave Aul his chance.
In the closing minutes Futey returned the compliment by grabbing a Wabash pass and touching the ball down after a 45 yard sprint. The five attempts to score points after touchdowns for W. & J. were blocked and Wabash also failed on its attempt.

KANSAS AGGIES DEFEATED AMES 12-2

(By The Associated Press)
MANHATTAN, Kans., Nov. 11.—More than 2,000 persons hovered under umbrellas and in the grandstand this afternoon while the Kansas Aggies administered a 12 to 2 defeat to Ames. A drizzling rain was falling when the two teams took the field and the gridiron resembled a swimming pool.
The Kansas scored in the first period when Clements went over for a touchdown. A pass, Stark to Munn, over the heads of the two teams gave the wild cats their second touchdown. Neither goal was kicked.
Only once did the cyclones get close enough to the Aggie line to threaten it.

MICHIGAN BEATS OHIO AND ILLINOIS

Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 11.—Michigan defeated Illinois and Ohio State in a cross country running meet today. Isabel of Michigan who finished first ran the five miles in 26 minutes and 22 seconds.
Scott, captain of the Illinois team finished second. Michigan scored 20 points, Illinois 39 and Ohio State 53.
Chicago, Nov. 11.—Joe Stecher, former heavyweight wrestling champion today was signed to meet John Freiberg in a 19 round bout, under the White rules.

BATTLING SIKI GETS IN TROUBLE.
Paris, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press).—"Battling" Siki, the Senegalese heavy weight fighter, celebrated Armistice Day by donning the uniform of a Senegalese sharpshooter which he wore during the war. He was hauled along the boulevards under a military guard and was charged with carrying of a military uniform. He was ordered home to his clothes.

WAVERLY DEFEATED VIRDEN HIGH 17-0

Coach Jackson's Team Take Macoupin County Team Into Camp—Teams Played Evenly in First Half.

Waverly, Nov. 11.—Waverly High defeated Virden high here this afternoon by a score of 17 to 0. The teams played an even game during the first half, neither being able to put over a counter.
In the third quarter Waverly worked the ball down to Virden's fifteen yard line. Here Virden's defense stiffened and Hughes place kicked a goal for the first points of the game.
After the next kickoff Virden was held for downs. Waverly then opened up with a series of forward passes and line plunges and Turner was sent over for the touchdown. Hughes place kicked for the goal.
Early in the fourth period after working the ball to Virden's 10 yard line four line plunges put it over, P. Bryan carrying the ball. Hughes again place kicked the goal making the score 17 to 0.
In the third quarter Jolly, half back for Waverly received a fracture of the collar bone when he was tackled after making a 20 yard run.
Carlinville high plays at Waverly next Saturday. It will be Waverly's big game of the season as the Macoupin team has not yet been defeated. Coach Jackson's team is going good now and hopes to slip over a win on its opponents.

COLUMBIA TAKES ST. VIATOR'S MEASURE

(By The Associated Press)
DUBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 11.—Columbia college coached by Eddie Anderson, last season star at Notre Dame, won its fifth straight shutout victory here today by defeating St. Viator college of Kankakee, Ill., 13 to 0.
The visitors could do nothing with the Columbia line and their forward passes succeeded only a few times. Columbia scored touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters. The first came after a long march down the field on straight football, ending with a 25 yard gain on a forward pass.
The final score was made after an intercepted forward pass on St. Viator's 25 yard line. Two line smashes, a forward pass and another line smash put the ball over the line.

FAMOUS FOOTBALL PLAYERS OFFICIATE

(By The Associated Press)
WATERLOO, Iowa, Nov. 11.—Two All-American quarterbacks graced a Waterloo gridiron today, the first time that such famed football celebrities have ever appeared with the gleated shoes in Waterloo.
One was the well known Aubrey Devine, captain of Iowa's big ten championship eleven last year and universal choice of all mythical elevens. The other was E. D. Millard, Penn State, selected by critics for the greatest team in the country in 1915.
Devine refereed the West Waterloo-Cedar Rapids game while Millard was umpire. Cedar Rapids won 25 to 0.
Lombard scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, two more in the second period, increased its score to 32 in the third session and piled 14 more points in the last period.

NORTHWESTERN IS WINNER OF FIRST CONFERENCE GAME

Defeated Purdue University in Stiff Battle by 24-13 Score

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Northwestern University won its first Western Conference football game in two years today when it defeated Purdue at Evanston 24 to 13. Northwestern won its last conference game from Purdue in 1920, 14 to 0. Purdue staged a sensational rally in the last few minutes of play and succeeded in pushing over a touchdown shortly before the whistle blew. Purdue scored in the first five minutes of play when Swank fell on Rembe's fumble behind the Northwestern goal. The final was made when Pratt circled the left end from Northwestern's 15 yard line after a march down the field from Purdue's 25 yard line. Haleready kicked goal.
The ball was in Northwestern's possession most of the time. Northwestern's first points were made in the second period when Captain Patterson sent over a place kick from the 35 yard line. McIlwain who was substituted for C. Kelly, scored the first touchdown on a pass to Rembe behind the Purdue line. Chuck Palmer circled left end for a 45 yard run and Northwestern's second touchdown in the third quarter and shortly after McIlwain went around right end for a 15 yard sprint and the third touchdown. Patterson kicked goal in each attempt.

CHAMPAIGN HIGH CLAIMS CHAMPIONSHIP

(By The Associated Press)
CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Nov. 11.—Using a dazzling array of plays, Champaign high school defeated Moline high here this afternoon 28 to 0.
Champaign's attack was so varied that Moline was unable to fathom the plays. Moline played the local team off its feet for the first two minutes and made first down twice on three plays. After that Champaign tightened up and the Moline men were thrown frequently behind the line. Moline had one opportunity to score in the first quarter but with seven yards to go on third down, a quarterback sneak was tried and failed. Then an attempted dropkick went wide and it was Champaign's ball.
Champaign's open play was responsible for most of the yardage gained, with an occasional pass worked in.
Champaign's first touchdown came in the first quarter on straight football. Before the quarter ended another was made when at punt was blocked and Champaign recovered the ball. A forward pass put the ball on the one yard line and a line plunge sent it over.
Champaign's decisive victory over Moline gives the local team a claim on the state championship and local followers see possibility of a game with Waite High of Toledo or a trip to the coast.

CARTHAGE WINS GAME BY FORFEIT

(By The Associated Press)
CARTHAGE, Ill., Nov. 11.—Carthage College won a forfeited victory over Iowa Wesleyan here today when the latter team walked off the field in the second quarter following a disputed decision. An outside kick Lyons to Sandlin which Referee Callahan of Knox did not see led to the dispute. Callahan appealed to Umpire Benjamin of Normal University high who ruled the ball in possession of Carthage on the Wesleyan 3-yard line. The score at the time was 3 to 0, Carthage having scored in the first quarter.
SYRACUSE HAS EASY TIME WITH M'GILL
Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 11.—American football proved its superiority over Canadian rugby this afternoon when Syracuse university winning its second international gridiron contest against McGill 32 to 0. Although it was understood that American rules would govern the game the officials were lenient and allowed the Montreal players great freedom in their use of the lateral forward pass.

ROUTT COLLEGE WON GAME AT FRANKLIN

Football Game Saturday Afternoon Results in Score of 14 to 0 in Favor of Routt College.

The Routt college and Franklin high school football squads met on the Franklin field Saturday afternoon the game finishing with a score of 14 to 0 in favor of the local players. The game was a good one on both sides and was witnessed by a large crowd.
Both of the Routt touchdowns were made in the third quarter. The first was made by Trahey on a trick play. Fitzgerald scored the second upon a tackle around play. Gebert drop kicked for the extra points after each touchdown.
The Routt college lineup follows: Gebert, qb; Trahey, rb; Murphy, qb; Doyle, lb; Mallen and Jackson, ends; Early and Schy, guards; Cleary, c; Kennedy and Fitzgerald, tackles.
The Franklin lineup is given below: L. Smith, c; Bergschneider and Rawlings, guards; Sargent and M. Hocking, tackles; Reed and W. Seymour, ends; A. Seymour and O. Hocking, half backs; Baker, quarterback; Bland, fb.
Officials—Peebles, Waverly, referee; Reed, Franklin, umpire.
The Franklin team is to play Scottville next Friday on the Franklin field.

CARTHAGE WINS GAME BY FORFEIT

(By The Associated Press)
CARTHAGE, Ill., Nov. 11.—Carthage College won a forfeited victory over Iowa Wesleyan here today when the latter team walked off the field in the second quarter following a disputed decision. An outside kick Lyons to Sandlin which Referee Callahan of Knox did not see led to the dispute. Callahan appealed to Umpire Benjamin of Normal University high who ruled the ball in possession of Carthage on the Wesleyan 3-yard line. The score at the time was 3 to 0, Carthage having scored in the first quarter.
SYRACUSE HAS EASY TIME WITH M'GILL
Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 11.—American football proved its superiority over Canadian rugby this afternoon when Syracuse university winning its second international gridiron contest against McGill 32 to 0. Although it was understood that American rules would govern the game the officials were lenient and allowed the Montreal players great freedom in their use of the lateral forward pass.

CHICAGO WINS FROM OHIO STATE AFTER HARD BATTLE 14-9

Winners Have to Give Up Line Plunging and Resort to Open Football Tactics—Ohio Stops J. Thomas, Human Battering Ram—Pyott and Workman Star for Their Teams

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 11.—Chicago defeated a revamped Ohio State eleven here today 14 to 9, but only after a hard fight and after switching from the line pounding game to open football. The Buckeyes led the Maroons 3 to 0 during the entire first half, but fell before the open attack of the Chicago team in the third quarter when forward passes and trick plays netted Coach Staggs' men two touchdowns within a few minutes.
After the Maroons had scored twice, Coach Wilce sent in fresh players and a rally based mostly on a series of forward passes netted his team one touchdown.
But Chicago braced and the Buckeyes were unable to push the ball over again. While the much shifted Ohio line held John Thomas, Chicago fullback and battering ram, sufficiently to prevent a touchdown, it could not stop Pyott, his running mate.

PRINCETON TIGER SHARPENS CLAWS ON HARVARD MEN

Spring Surprise by Defeating Crimson by Score of 10 to 3

(By The Associated Press)
CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 11.—The Tiger team that jumped effectively when its adversary exposed himself by fumbles, won from Harvard today 10 to 3. It was another victory for the opportunists school of football at Princeton. It was a second successive defeat for the Crimson by players wearing the Orange and Black and by the same score, and it was the first time that the Tigers had won a game in Harvard's stadium.
Princeton turned two Harvard fumbles into 10 points. Gehlke's miff in the second period opened the way to the touchdown scored by Crum and the consequent point on kick by Dinsmore. Another fumble by Spaulding, substitute quarterback in the third period made possible a field goal by Baker. This scoring by the Tiger team came after Harvard had gone into an early lead on a goal from placement, kicked by Owen in the first period. These were the scoring plays.
Baker and Stout were the heroes, who justified the Princeton policy of waiting, waiting, thru time after time of rushing opportunity by punning on the balls let loose by Harvard errors.
It was the irony of the football fates of the day that the winning teams longest advance on its own merits, one of sixty yards, made in the third period went without score when Baker failed on a try for field goal while its scoring was done on short advances after the fumbles that were so disastrous to Harvard.
Similarly Harvard's greatest sustained advance one of 40 yards in the second period which ended with Owens' unsuccessful attempt for a goal from the field and of 40 yards in the last period when forward passes of last ditch strategy brought the Crimson along and then failed them went without scoring reward. The goal from placement scored by Owen was the reward of Buell's fair catch on Princeton's 30 yards line.

PRINCETON TIGER SHARPENS CLAWS ON HARVARD MEN

Pyott scored the Maroon's first touchdown early in the third quarter on a double pass and a swift run around his left end, only a moment later he tossed a forward pass on which Dickson netted 50 yards and the second touchdown, and drop kicked for both points after touchdown.
Ohio's first score came shortly after the opening of the first period. The Chicago fumble recovered by the Buckeyes gave them the ball inside the Chicago 30 yard line and after several line plays Workman booted a drop kick from his 30 yard line. The Ohio touchdown was made in the fourth period after the Buckeyes had carried the ball from mid-field.
Workman, shifted from quarter back to half in the shake up of the last two weeks played the stellar role for the Buckeyes. His drop kick accounted for three of the Buckeyes' points and his line plunging and forward passing were features. One of Workman's punts, kicked from his own goal line rolled across the Chicago goal, a distance of 100 yards. Ohio State (9). Position, Chicago (14).

INDIANA SWAMPED BY WEST VIRGINIA

(By The Associated Press)
BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 11.—Indiana met its worse defeat of the season at its homecoming game today when West Virginia held the home team scoreless and ran up 35 points in the last three quarters of the game which was played entirely in the Crimson territory. Tho the Indiana team fought desperately and did not concede victory until the final whistle blew it was purely West Virginia's game after the first quarter.

PEORIA HIGH GETS ITS FIRST DEFEAT

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 11.—Peoria High school's eleven was defeated for the first time this season when Saturday's game here with Urbana high ended with a score of 7 to 0 in favor of the visitors. A blocked punt in the middle of the second quarter decided the contest. Maple attempted a punt on his fifteen yard line but Douth broke thru the Peoria high line and blocked the kick. Sperry darted around the local's right end for the lone touchdown and Edward's kicked goal.

PLAYERS FUMBLE BALL; GET ONE TO CARRY

(By The Associated Press)
KALAMAZOO, Mich., Nov. 11.—Because seven of his players fumbled the ball in today's game with Valparaiso University, Coach Ralph Young of Kalamazoo College, gave each of the men a football at the close of the contest and ordered that they carry the pigskins with them everywhere they went during the next week. Should any of them be found without the ball in their possession no matter where it was during the week, he said, they would be thrown off the team.
Kalamazoo won from Valparaiso 21 to 15, the visitors making their two touchdowns as a result of fumbles.
HAMLINE WINS FROM CARLETON
St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 11.—Hamline University took the lead in the mid-west football conference by defeating Carleton college of North field, Minn., 7 to 6 here today. Next Saturday Hamline will meet Lawrence college at Appleton, Wis., for the conference title.

Illinois College Wins at Eureka; Score 12 to 0

HARMON'S MEN SHOW HOMECOMING HOW FOOTBALL IS PLAYED

Blue and White Squad Take the Ball at the First Kickoff and March Down the Field to Touchdown—Eureka Only Threatened Once—Locals Score Again in Final Period

Showing a "punch" that could not be stopped, Coach Harmon's Illinois College team walked on Eureka College in that city yesterday afternoon, the final score being 12 to 0.

It was homecoming day at Eureka and a large crowd of former alumni saw Illinois demonstrate how the game of football should be played. The Blue and White had the fighting spirit yesterday and from the first to the last whistle with but few exceptions Eureka was on the defensive.

Judging from the result of the game with Eureka, Coach Harmon has at last found the key to the winning combination in his backfield. There is no outstanding star such as "Bo" Cully. In his place, however, are four men of class playing as a unit. This team work is what is bringing victory to Illinois and the men are beginning to find out that games can be won without stars if every fellow puts his best in the game and helps the other man all the time.

No doubt the result of the game was a rude jolt to Eureka. The Christians have been going strong this season and with practically the same team as that of last year had visions of a victory yesterday. These visions faded quickly right at the first kickoff.

Eureka kicked off to Illinois. Starting with the ball on her own 5 yard line, Illinois walked straight down the field for a touchdown. During this march Illinois never fumbled or wavered. Vogt, Rogers and Plattner took turns at carrying the ball.

At the 15 yard line Illinois was penalized five yards for off side play. This was made up and first down negotiated. With three yards to go in the fourth down, Vogt passed to Rogers over the line for a touch-

ROCKNE LOOKS FOR ANOTHER GOOD YEAR

COACH KNUTE ROCKNE

The football team that represented Notre Dame last year was one of the greatest in the country. Many experts insisted that Notre Dame had a shade on any other team.

The open game as played by Notre Dame, featuring a number of intricate formations and many puzzling shift plays, was the talk of the east, after Coach Rockne's team had played two games in that section.

At the close of the football season, the professional scandal that hit many a western school found Notre Dame among them. A half dozen players were lost through having accepted money for playing football. As many more stars were lost through graduation.

The loss of a dozen star players ordinarily is far too great a handicap to saddle on any coach. But it is why many of the experts seemed to think Notre Dame's play would be away below standard this fall.

Coach Rockne, the resourceful head of Notre Dame's football, refused to see the situation in that light. He insisted on being optimistic despite the unfavorable condition that confronted him.

While Rockne refuses to openly say that his team of this year is as formidable as his 1921 eleven, still insists that before the close of the year the experts will be singing the praises of some players practically unknown at the opening of the season.

What is more, Rockne says Notre Dame will have no alibis to offer when the season is over. By that we take it he expects to win all the games.

Bats Four Hundred For Third Time

Dispute is Allowed. Enabling Cobb to Equal Unusual Record

By BILLY EVANS.

During the season of 1922 Ty Cobb of the Detroit club added several new records to his credit.

Of his several notable performances none pleased Cobb better than his season's batting average of an even .400.

It was the third time in his career of 18 years as an American leaguer that Cobb batted .400 or better.

In 1911 Cobb achieved the best mark of his career, .420. He came back in 1912 with .410. His ambition to hit .400 for three consecutive years was broken when he piled up the mark of only .399 in 1913.

Getting an even .400 in 1922, however, has enabled Cobb to tie the major league record. It was formerly held by Jesse Burkett, who batted .40 or better in 1895, 1896 and 1897.

Allows Disputed Hit. Since the close of the present season there has been considerable discussion as to whether or not Cobb really did hit .400 because of a questionable hit.

That argument has been closed by President Johnson of the American league, who has announced that the disputed hit has been allowed.

The national averages of the American league as published had Cobb at bat 527 times and making 211 hits for an average of .400.

A few weeks later the official statistician noted that there was a difference between his records and the unofficial averages. His records gave Cobb only 210 hits, bringing his average just below the prized mark, or .399.

A careful survey of the averages showed that in a certain game, played at New York in May, the news bureau credited Cobb with two hits while the official score sheet gave him only one.

Follow Official Scorer. It's a rule of all news bureaus that the official score sheet shall be followed in sending out the results.

In this game Cobb hit a ball over second that Scott got in front of but was unable to get his man at first.

At first the official scorer ruled it a hit, but later changed his mind and credited Scott with an error.

An investigation shows that a dozen experts were in New York press box that day and eleven of them gave Cobb a hit on the play, among them being Fred Lieb, president of the Baseball Writers' association.

The preponderance of evidence proved that Cobb deserved a hit and the disputed bingle was allowed. The official scorer said that he first ruled it a hit, and after thinking it over believed Scott should have handled the play and scored it an error.

MINNESOTA GOES DOWN BEFORE IOWA AFTER GAME FIGHT

Gophers Able to Get By Iowa Defense for Two Touchdowns

(By The Associated Press)

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 11.—Fighting gamely against a team that was clearly their superiors in every department of the game, the University of Minnesota's football team when down before the University of Iowa's big ten champions by the score of 28 to 14 this afternoon.

It was the fifth consecutive time the Hawkeyes have humbled the Gophers in their annual contest and it put Iowa one step nearer the conference championship. Coach Jones' men started the scoring early in the first quarter, piling up two touchdowns against Minnesota's one, Locke and Parkin carrying the ball for long gains thru the Minnesota line.

Locke smashed the ball over from the nine yard line for the first touchdown, following a long forward pass. Following the kickoff, Iowa went over for the score. Shuttleworth kicked both goals.

Minnesota's score came following Iowa's failure to capture a punt that twisted from Parkin's hands within Iowa's 25 yard line. A completed forward pass and a line plunge tallied the score for the Gophers.

In the second period the old gold warriors pushed Locke over for two more touchdowns, after the Iowa captain had hit the Minnesota line for 10 and 20 yard gains.

Iowa played the third period with most of the first team men on the side lines. Parkins was injured as was Rich who went in his place. Locke was taken out for a rest and many changes were made in the line.

Minnesota fought hard against the heavy odds of a 28 to 7 score and in the final minutes of play on a forward pass following a series of long gains from their section of the field put the ball over the goal for their final score.

The game was slow, being played on a field that had been drenched with rain just before noon. Heavy clouds threatened a further downpour during the play. Injuries to players of both teams were frequent. A homecoming crowd estimated at 25,000 witnessed the contest.

JOHNSTON OFFERED JOB AS MANAGER

Philadelphia, Pa. — "Doc" Johnston, the veteran first baseman of the Athletics, may manage the Columbus team of the American association next year. Negotiations are under way, and it is said Manager Mack will not stand in Johnston's way of advancement.

Johnston is a veteran big leaguer, having seen service with Cleveland and Philadelphia in the American league and Pittsburgh in the National. Most of the time that he has spent in the minors has been in the south. He played for Milwaukee the year Jack Egan handled the club, and his good work got him his chance with Pittsburgh.

While Johnston is no longer able to stand the strain of a big league campaign he has plenty of good ball playing left in him and should go big in the minors as a playing manager.

Johnston is a hustler, possesses the old fighting spirit, and has always been popular with the players. It is believed that he would retain all three essential qualities as a manager.

The fine showing made by Hauser at first base for the Athletics has won him that position and no doubt no trouble will be had with Mack on getting Johnston out of the league.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 10.—With every regular at Cambridge watching Harvard and Princeton, the Yale second and third string men swamped Maryland 45 to 3, by use of forward passes today.

Himach of the Athletics, Pen-neck of Boston, Prægt of St. Louis, Mobridge of Washington, and Oldham of Chicago are the best of a very ordinary lot.

HUGGINS MAY RETIRE BEFORE SEASON OPENS

By NEA Service.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Despite the fact that Miller Huggins has been reappointed as manager of the New York Yankees, the impression prevails that he will not be at the helm when the 1923 season opens.

Unquestionably the job is Huggins' if he desires to accept it, but those close to the mite manager say it wouldn't surprise them if he stepped down and out before the next campaign.

Had Huggins won the world series he would have probably retired. Failure to win the series is one of the things that caused Huggins to again accept the management. The leader of the Yankees has plenty of money, but is in poor health, and managing a club like the Yankees is far from being a health tonic.

To his close friends Huggins had told that he would retire at the close of the 1922 season if his team won the series. The poor showing of the Yankees was a keen disappointment to Huggins, who fully had expected to win. That upset has changed his mind about retiring, temporarily at least.

Unless sweeping changes are made in the personnel of the Yankees that club is going to be harder than ever to manage next season. Huggins realizes this and it may result in a change of mind before the season opens as to again leading the club.

The trouble with the Yankees has been due to Babe Ruth being bigger than the manager of the club. Ruth practically did as he pleased, which made it next to impossible for Huggins to enforce discipline among the other members of the club.

Managing the New York Yankees under present conditions is worth a lot of money and it is doubtful if Huggins is getting what it is worth, or has the health to stand it.

NEBRASKA THROWS IN EXTRA TOUCHDOWN

(By The Associated Press)

LAWRENCE, Kans., Nov. 11.—Doped to win by three touchdowns, Nebraska threw in another for good measure in the annual Kansas-Nebraska football clash today. The game ended 28 to 0 in favor of the Nebraskans.

The scoring was done in the first, second and fourth periods.

Late in the first quarter, McAdams attempted to punt from behind the Kansas goal line. The kick was blocked by Peterson but a Kansas man fell on the ball, Nebraska scoring a two point safety.

In the second quarter Scherer intercepted a Kansas pass and with a clear field ran 40 yards for a touchdown. Dewitz kicked goal. In the third period Kansas took the ball on downs when Nebraska had six inches to go, to the Kansas goal line.

In the final period Hartley carried the ball over for a touchdown and Russell for two more.

SOUTHPAWS VERY SCARCE.

Pitching runs in cycles. The major leagues constantly vary as to their pitching strength.

Just at present the American league is weak on southpaws. There really isn't a great left hander in the American league.

Dick Kerr of the Chicago White Sox, perhaps the most valuable southpaw in the organization, spent last year in the independent ranks because of a salary difference.

Himach of the Athletics, Pen-neck of Boston, Prægt of St. Louis, Mobridge of Washington, and Oldham of Chicago are the best of a very ordinary lot.

During the first half the teams battled almost on even terms. When the half ended Springfield held the advantage by a touchdown. Arnold who was the star of the local squad got away for two thirty yard runs in this half and threw a big scare into the Springfield rooters by his brilliant work.

Hopper who did the punting in the absence of Hunt got away several good punts and Jacksonville did not lose anything in this respect. The local team several times showed flashes of its true form and held Springfield when its goal was threatened.

Springfield presented a well-oiled machine and its members played hard, but clearly. In fact the best feeling prevailed during the game between the players and both players and rooters were given excellent treatment by Springfield fans. The officiating also was of a high order.

The Springfield scores were made in the first, third and fourth quarters. Carnes, full back starred for the Red and Black team. He played about the Red and White line several times for gains of from 25 to 35 yards. Two passes of 35 yards each, from Thompson to Petefish and Thompson to Ritchie also featured the Springfield play. The lineup: Jacksonville. Position. Springfield

NEW UMPIRES IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

By NEA Service.

CHICAGO—The signing of two new umpires by President Johnston of the American League is an indication that he intends to shake up the personnel of his staff.

The two new men signed are "Red" Ormsby and "Ducky" Holmes. Both men umpired in the Western League last year and gave excellent satisfaction in that circuit.

Ormsby is a product of the Chicago sandlots. He is a big, husky fellow, who gets his nickname because of the color of his locks. While he has only had a few years' experience in the minors he is regarded as one of the best umpiring prospects in the country.

Holmes, of course, is not the original "Ducky," as all players by the name of Holmes are known as "Ducky." Holmes was a good minor league player. He was a catcher. When his playing days were ended because of an injury he took to umpiring.

Holmes has worked in a number of minor leagues, among them being the American Association. A year ago he received a short trial in the National League and got along fine. The National League, however, refused to pay the purchase price asked and he lost his big chance.

President Heydler of the National League says there will be at least two new men on his staff. A number of umpires were tried by him near the close of the season.

EXPERTS PICK KAMM TO STAR WITH SOX

COAST LEAGUE players are confident that Willie Kamm will be a sensation in the American League in 1923.

Kamm, it will be remembered, is the player for whom Chicago paid something like $100,000 and gave three pitchers, Hodge, Courtney and McWeeny.

Kamm is a third baseman, and if he is nearly as good as his advance notices, will play that position for the Sox, supplanting Mulligan and McClellan, who divided the time around the difficult corner in 1922.

Frank Chance says there is no question about Kamm's fielding. There is a slight doubt as to his hitting, according to Chance. However, he figures Kamm will prove so valuable afield that he will be a great player in the American League if only able to hit around .260.

Oscar Vitt, a mighty good third baseman, who has seen much service in the American League but who is now playing on the coast, is strong for Kamm.

"Kamm is a big leaguer right now. He doesn't need a bit of experience to polish him off. He will make good, from the opening game," says Vitt.

Umpire George Hildebrand of the American League staff, who lives in San Francisco and has often seen Kamm play, is another strong booster for the youngster.

"Kamm is one of the most wonderful fielders I have ever seen," says Hildebrand. "When he goes after a ball you are only surprised when he fails to get it. He makes the most difficult kind of chances look easy."

All of which makes it seem that Comiskey is to get his money's worth out of Kamm.

ROODHOUSE HAS EASY TIME WITH CARROLLTON

Roodhouse high had an easy time with Carrollton high at Roodhouse yesterday afternoon, winning by a score of 43 to 2. The Roodhouse boys outclassed their opponents and the only score by Carrollton was a drop kick for the three points. Many penalties were inflicted during the game on both teams. Ralph Bowen was the referee and Thomas Smith umpire.

"Donahue is the best young pitcher that has broken into the National League in years."

There you have the opinion of Bill Klem, generally considered the premier of the National staff of umpires. Klem goes even farther in paying his compliments to the ace of the Cincinnati pitching staff.

"I know that is some compliment when you consider the Mathewson and a number of other great pitchers have won fame as National Leaguers."

KLEM THINKS WELL OF DONAHUE

NOTRE DAME AND ARMY BATTLE TO SCORELESS TIE

Neither Team Has Punch When the Opportunity is Offered

(By The Associated Press)

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Notre Dame and Army battled to a scoreless tie yesterday. Neither team scored, the each had chances. The Army in each of the first two periods and the Hoosiers in the last quarter.

The Cadets were on the offensive throughout the first half, but could not maintain a consistent attack. Notre Dame was stronger in the last two periods but also lacked the punch to carry the ball over.

Except in the last period Army forward passing was superior to the widely heralded air offensive of Notre Dame. White and Meyers, Army ends intercepting many of the Hoosier passes.

Notre Dame had the best chance to score. Starting from its own 42 yard line in the last quarter the Hoosier machine mixing short passes with a variety of quick plays advanced down the field, making four first downs. Crowley substituting for Layden at left half back, was given the ball on the four yard line but tackled so severely that it bounced out of his grasp. Lawrence, substituting for Dood, Army right half back fell on the ball. Notre Dame was penalized five yards and Wood punted out of danger.

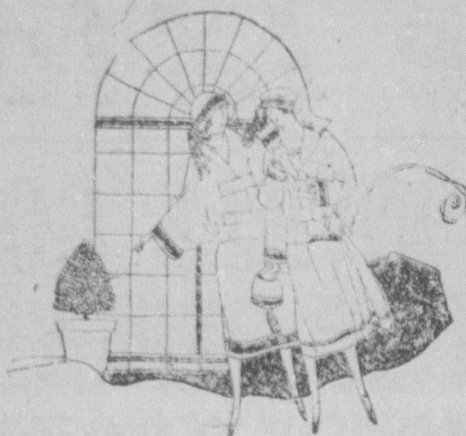

TRAVEL IS HANDICAP TO FOOTBALL TEAMS

Danville, Ky.—Charley Moran, famous coach of the Centre college team, was not the least bit surprised when Syracuse defeated Nebraska and Harvard ran rough-shod over the husky Florida eleven.

"When a train travels 1,000 miles to play a football game it spots the opposing eleven a touchdown, when the distance ranges around 2,000 miles it means giving a two-touchdown handicap."

"Travel robs a football team of much of its 'pep.' Because the faculties limit the time that can be taken to make the journey it is impossible to give the team much rest prior to the game. Then there is the climatic and food conditions to contend with."

"When a team takes a long jaunt to play a football game the coach can figure he is spotting the opposition a touchdown or two before the start of the game."

RED CROSS HAS AIDED MANY EX-SERVICE MEN

Work of Local Chapter Commanded By American Legion Post.

Jacksonville Post of the American Legion has recently voiced gratitude for the work of the local Red Cross for the disabled ex-service men of Morgan county. The post adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, the Morgan County Red Cross was during the War untiring and faithful in its service to the men of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the United States, and the families of the men of Morgan County; and

Whereas, the Morgan County Red Cross has cooperated in every way with the Veterans Bureau in seeking out and rendering assistance to disabled ex-service men entitled to care, training, and compensation because of their disability; and

Whereas, the men of the Jacksonville Post of the American Legion have learned to rely on the Red Cross as the official and established institution for the relief of ex-service men in need of assistance; and

Whereas, the Morgan County Chapter of the American Red Cross is enrolling new membership November 11-20; Therefore be it Resolved, that the Jacksonville Post of the American Legion voice its appreciation of the services rendered by the Morgan County Red Cross to the disabled ex-service men and highly commend and endorse this campaign and urge all men of the Legion to aid and support it.

E. W. BROWN JR. BEGINS WORK ON NEW BUILDING

WILL OPEN TEA ROOM IN THIS CITY SOON

Mrs. C. W. Temple and Miss Bucknell to Have New Jacksonville Service Feature at 707 West State Street.

"The Tea Tray" has been selected as the name for the attractive tea room which will open Tuesday P. M., November 14 at 707 West State street. "The Tea Tray" is to be opened by Mrs. C. W. Temple and Miss Genevieve J. Bucknell and will afford Jacksonville an attractive place to take afternoon tea and to eat an appetizing and daintily prepared meal.

The location for the new enterprise, the house just west of the Standard Oil station on West State street, is admirable for a tea shop. The interior of the house lends itself artistically to the arrangements for serving and entertaining guests and the furnishing of the rooms has made them unusually attractive. Two rooms will be used for serving and tables and chairs in black and white art design furniture have been installed. Rag rugs and window draperies of tussa, not with hangings of colorful cretonne will add to the general artistic effect of the furnishings. Dainty table covers and clever hand made menu cards will be the finishing touches in the serving rooms.

Afternoon tea will be served between the hours of three thirty and five o'clock. A special feature will be made of Sunday evening suppers for which reservations must be made not later than 5 P. M. Special attention will be given to small parties and club meetings as arrangements can be made so that club members may hold their meetings in private rooms.

Have your Red Cross membership dollar ready for the solicitor or bring to Red Cross headquarters, Public Library building.

DR. DUNN OF PERRY HAS FIGHTING CHANCE

Leading Citizen of Pike Town Undergoes Blood Transfusion to Conserve Strength—Many Perry Friends Inquire Daily—Brother and Sisters Here.

Dr. B. B. Dunn, doctor of Pike and idol of the town and district, who underwent operation at Passavant hospital Monday for acute appendicitis, Saturday received a blood transfusion to conserve his strength in fighting an uphill battle with gangrene and peritonitis resulting from the ruptured appendix.

Relief was given from swelling due to gas by puncturing the abdomen. Following this the doctor seemed vastly more comfortable. He still seems strong, but the battle to save his life was thought likely to be of some weeks' duration, though there seems to have begun the upward pull anxiously awaited the last two days.

Charles A. Dunn, county surveyor of Peoria and brother of the doctor, motored here from Peoria to remain until the present crisis is past. Mrs. G. Armentrout of Spokane, Dr. Dunn's sister, who was to have returned Thursday, is also staying indefinitely. Both of these and Miss Aileen Dunn of Perry are staying with Mrs. R. Shoemaker, 826 West College avenue, also a sister. Mrs. Dunn is spending most of the time at the hospital. Dr. Frederick Dunn, head of the state hospital at Salt Lake City, Utah, is the only immediate relative not here.

Perry people in large numbers have inquired daily, and two nephews, Harvey Whitaker and Ray Simms, have carried word by phone and by automobile trips. A number of Jacksonville doctors and other friends are personally interested in the case.

Although his efficient carefulness, combined with his jovial cheering influence in the sick room and in the community, was such as to cause the entire community to petition his early release from the army following recent war, in which he enlisted, his refusal to bother about his own danger signals caused the delay of action until the pain of his malady became torture.

INVESTIGATION FROM ARGENTINE PRAISES GERMANY'S INDUSTRY

Says, However, That Rigors of the Coming Winter Will Crack Morale of the Working Classes Unless Attitude of the World Improves—Have Spirit of Work in Veins

(By The Associated Press)
BERLIN.—The rigors of the coming winter threaten to crack the morale of Germany's working classes unless the outside world alters its political attitude and the work improves, declared Dr. Thomas Amadeo, a prominent Argentine economist, on the eve of his departure from Berlin after a nationwide study.
Dr. Amadeo is Argentina's general director of public instruction in agriculture, professor of rural economy in the Universities of Buenos Aires and LaPlatta, and director of the Museo Social Argentino, under the auspices of which the late Theodore Roosevelt visited Argentina. He resumes his duties as Argentine delegate to the International Agricultural Institute at Rome next month, after spending a short time in France.
In spite of his fears for the economic position of Germany in the near future, Dr. Amadeo voiced the utmost praise for the industry now prevailing.
"I have the impression," he said, "of having seen an enormous swarm of diligent people led by individuals of unsurpassable competence in all classes and activities. The German people has the spirit of work in its blood and marrow and bone, and for that reason the German people will not go under as did the Austrians."
He called attention, however, to the increasing costs of living and to the serious domestic results of depreciation in the mark, warning that these factors might prove a strain too severe for the workers to stand.
An economic collapse of Germany, Dr. Amadeo was convinced, would mean heavy losses for all countries of North and South America. On the other hand he believed all would profit greatly if the position of Germany's industry were improved and her trade were restored to its normal channels.
Regarding German-Argentine relations, Dr. Amadeo said he found many Germans wished to go to South America, especially to Argentina, but were unable to pay the costs of the voyage because of the mark's low exchange value. "They are the sons of farmers, hand workers, and persons of small independent means who seek better prospects," he explained. "They would without doubt be very useful to the young lands of South America because of their technical efficiency and their ambitions to progress. Never would there be a better time than the present for the founding of a colonization company on a large scale and promoted by farm and employment circles."
Dr. Amadeo incidentally expressed high confidence in the results to be achieved by an international congress of Social Museums and similar institutions which he proposes should be held at Buenos Aires under the auspices of the Museo Social Argentino. He voiced the opinion that these institutions should be more active in international cooperation for the improvement of the conditions of peoples.

FEATHER WEARERS ARE GIVEN SCORING

Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs Places Them in Same Class With Those Who Bootleg Liquor.

Springfield, Ill., Nov. 11.—Women who wear the feathers of protected birds on their hats are placed in the same class, by the Illinois Federation of Women's Club, as those who buy bootleg liquor.
Referring to the killing of fine birds to obtain their feathers, the official magazine of the federation asks: "Are you willing to aid the bootleggers of these glorious creatures?"
Calling attention to the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act which makes it unlawful to possess, sell, purchase any migratory bird or any part of such bird protected by the law, the Edict states:
"Men make and sell moonshine that kills and blinds—they adulterate food that babies eat, and cheat in measure and weight of the food that the poor must buy—they deal in drugs and degrade beyond belief—they kill the tiny song birds for soup! Why? just to make a little more money! And the courts are swamped with cases and the people pay the bills!"
"Will you aid the law breakers—or will you help enforce the law?"
The Edict warns that importation of the feathers of the heron, from which aigrettes are taken, and the bird of paradise, has been forbidden since 1913, and points out that the Internal Revenue department may seize such feathers unless it can be proved that they were imported before 1913, adding that "the eagerness of women to buy and dealers to make big profits is the cause of much smuggling of these birds."

THE STEEL STOCKS BABSON EXPLAINS RECENT SOFTNESS IN STEEL

WELLESLEY HILLS, Nov. 11.—Since the recent excitement of the steel mergers this class of stocks has disappointed most people, in fact those who consider steel industry as a harbinger of American business are decidedly upset. Roger W. Babson, who forecast the failure of the recent merger schemes in these columns, explains the action of these stocks rather satisfactorily.
"Steel prices," he says, "have recently shown signs of weakening, a generally expected tendency. A survey shows that surface conditions indicate strength, but the underlying situation which is the most important, tells a totally different story. You will remember that six months ago the trend of production of steel as well as other commodities, was distinctly upward. Steel output has recovered from the domestic 1921 slump when only 26,000,000 tons of steel were produced, which was 50 per cent under the previous year's output. With the increasing supply, there was no scarcity. Unfilled tonnage was increasing only moderately and transportation conditions were not considered critical. Prices of steel billets at that time were ruling 20 per cent over the pre-war average."
"Suddenly the picture changed. The pinch of the diminishing supply became more effective and the advent of the rail strikes brought additional apprehension. The buyer began purchasing ahead to protect deliveries. Orders were pyramided—a fact that is reflected by unfilled tonnage, which jumped from 5,776,000 tons in July to 5,950,000 tons in August, but in September jumped to 6,591,000 tons. The wave of heavy buying, due to artificial elements, is now passing. The outlook is again changing. The coal and railroad strikes are events of the past and as artificial tendencies are ironed out and eliminated, there is a strong possibility of a weakening in the price structure. This does not mean immediately for the question of delivery over the winter months is very important. Steel billets today rule 38 per cent over the low point of this year and 65 per cent over the pre-war average. This level is high enough for we are not on the eve of a boom in steel or commodity prices in general."
"We should not forget that there are several important phases to consider on the bear side. The steel producing capacity of this country as it stands today is much greater than our ability to consume and export. In 1913, the actual output of steel aggregated 31,000,000 tons while producing capacity was estimated at 35,000,000 tons. In 1920 we produced 40,000,000 tons, last year 20,000,000 tons and this year probably 30,000,000 tons, but the main point is, if called upon, we could produce steel at the rate of 55,000,000 tons annually. 1923 is bound to be a year of keen competition. Fundamental conditions indicate that we are not entering a prolonged period of over-expansion and any stimulation in consumption will prove gradual and of a limited character. Producing costs, particularly fuel, transportation and labor, are high enough and the next major move, in conjunction with the law of action and reaction should be downward. Certainly this is not the time to be bullish on steel. Protection over the winter months is the prime buying incentive."
"It is questionable whether the steel industry is fully readjusted. It did not conform fully with the contraction of the economic cycle in 1920 and 1921 and this is one of the reasons why I am not partial to steel stocks. The underlying structure of steel stocks is not over-strong altho of course individual stocks may show independent strength in sympathy with the action of the stock market."

GREAT POTASH FIELD MAY BE DISCOVERED

Professor at University of Kansas Says May be Found in Western Texas—Would Supply Entire American Demand.

LAWRENCE, Kan.—(By Associated Press.)—Potash beds large enough to supply the entire American demand for fertilizer and perhaps provide a surplus for export are likely to be discovered in Western Texas, according to H. W. Hoots, now an instructor in the department of geology in the University of Kansas. For the past year Mr. Hoots, as a member of the United States geological survey, carried on investigations in the prospective fields.
In a territory extending approximately 125 miles north and south and an equal distance east and west along the new Mexican border, strong indications have been found of what is perhaps the largest salt bed the world surveys indicate approximately 15,000 square miles of prairie country underlaid with a bed of rock salt that ranges from 40 to 1,500 feet in thickness. This salt bed lies at a depth of 900 to 2,300 feet, making it convenient for mining operations. The conditions which are favorable to the formation of salt are favorable also to the formation of potash.
Four test wells are to be sunk this winter to get accurate figures about the underlying strata. One well already is under way and the core is being preserved to show the thickness of the different materials penetrated. If these test wells result is expected in showing the value of the salt deposits, other tests will be made to determine the limits of the field and the location of its richer parts.
Minor test wells at Means, River, Bryant, Burns, McHowe and Sa. Rita have produced the raw potash but not on a production basis.
If this potash field proves what is expected," said Mr. Hoots, "it will mean that the United States has found an internal source which is needed so much not only as a soil fertilizer but also in the manufacture of soap, glass, explosives and medicinal supplies. Comparatively little potash is now being obtained in the United States and what there is now comes from western Nebraska, Seaford lake, California, and the Great Salt Lake region in Utah."

SCIENTISTS HAVE COMMENCED SEARCH FOR FRANKLIN TREE

Native Specimen was Named for Benjamin Franklin by John Bartram, Who Was Once Botanist to the King of England—Was Discovered in Georgia in the Year of 1765

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A "lost" tree is to be the objective of the latest scientific expedition to be organized in this country. It is the "Franklinia," a native specimen, now practically extinct, and named for Benjamin Franklin.
This tree first was discovered in 1765 in the Altamaha river valley near Fort Barrington, Georgia, by John Bartram, who once was botanist to the king of England. He named it for his friend, the Philadelphia printer.
Because of its decorative value, the tree immediately became popular and those who gathered the seeds and seedlings for propagation are believed to have caused its extermination in the wild state. Agriculture Department botanists declare that many searchers have visited the Altamaha valley in vain.

WAVERLY SCHOOL TO PRESENT OPERETTA

"Cinderella" to be Presented by Township High School, November 22—Other News of Interest from Waverly.

WAVERLY, Nov. 11.—The fairy operetta "Cinderella" will be given by Waverly Township high school pupils at the Bilton theatre Wednesday evening, November 2.
Mrs. Ida Wells has gone to Macomb for a visit with relatives.
Mrs. R. R. Carter is spending a few days visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Crain in Springfield.
Mr. and Mrs. John Newman have gone to Nebraska for a visit with relatives.
Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Crowell of Des Moines, Iowa, are visiting relatives here.
Mrs. C. W. Deatherage and grandson, Keith Berry, Mrs. R. B. Sunday and Miss Maude Cern went to Decatur to spend the week with and with Floyd Deatherage and Glenn Smedley.
Frank Lambert who has been taking vocational training at Lansing, Mich., has been transferred to the University of Illinois is spending a few days with his family here.

The beautiful, mildly fragrant white blossoms of the "Franklinia" resemble somewhat those of the magnolia, altho the tree itself does not grow so high, and the leaf is thinner and of different shape.

The Franklinia requires an "acid" soil, a condition which horticulturists have not understood for very long, and nurserymen found it so difficult to grow that now there are only six parks or gardens known to have specimens. Two of the trees are in Chevy Chase, one in Georgetown and another in Hyattsville, Md., suburbs of Washington, while there is another in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, and one or more others may be in a private nursery at Germantown, Pa.

The tree immediately became popular for garden and parking decoration, and those who gathered the seeds and seedlings for propagation, it is believed, used its extermination in the wild state. Certainly, Agriculture Department botanists declare, many successive searchers have sought in the Altamaha Valley in vain for the rare tree, and even yet, optimistic botanists still hope to have the honor of finding one or more isolated specimens. As none have been seen in this section, the only spot where the tree was ever found, since 1790, the beautiful species is held to be practically extinct.

Try to Locate Specimens.

It will be in a final endeavor to locate wild specimens, that the National Lumber Manufacturers Association will send out the party. The valley will be thoroughly combed for several months in the hope that the dense swampy thickets of that region still hide a few of the trees.

The interest taken by residents of Chevy Chase in the neglected specimens led the Association in the task. It was said that the dense growth of bushes and trees around the two remaining Franklinia trees in the government parking, in which they were placed some years ago, was rapidly sapping their feeble strength. The trees were "regrettably sentenced to death" by District of Columbia park officials who were unable, because of the "budget alibi," excuse of federal government officials, to obtain money for their succor.

However, private life savers have started to prune away the growth about the trees to admit more sunlight to them, and to cultivate and acidulate the soil about their roots to give longer span of life to the remaining representatives of a rare native tree, named in honor of one of the country's greatest historical personages.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

The Last Word in Comfort and Performance

There is a pleasant surprise awaiting you in the Paige seven-passenger Sedan. When you begin your inspection of this superb enclosed model, ignore for the moment the price tag. Set your expectations high. Think in terms that heretofore would cost at least $5,000 to realize. Then put the Paige Sedan to the test of your ideals.

Under these conditions you will expect a car that in design and craftsmanship is a thing of real beauty. You will insist on the utmost in comfort and convenience. And above all, you will demand performance that only the perfection of mechanical equipment can provide.

All this is precisely what you will find in the Paige seven-passenger Sedan. For here is a remarkable combination of all those qualities necessary for a truly fine car of this type. It is one of the handsomest cars of a line long noted the country over for its beauty. The interior richness comes from heavy all-wool upholstery in attractive weave and hues. The fittings are silvered. Every convenience is provided. There is room to seat seven adults in comfort.

Here is a car of which any man or woman may well be proud. It is always at home in the most distinguished company. It is the perfect servant of your daily needs in town and on the highway, and the price says only $3155 f.o.b. factory.

The complete Paige-Jewett line of six-cylinder passenger cars offers a selection of thirteen models priced from $995 to $3350. The complete line of Paige trucks meets every haulage need. They are sold and serviced by Paige Dealers everywhere.

WHEN TAMMANY TRIUMPHED IN NEW YORK

Ex-Governor (and now governor-elect) Alfred E. Smith of New York and Mrs. Smith casting their ballots.

The overwhelming victory of former Governor Alfred E. Smith in the gubernatorial race in New York state was one of the outstanding features of Tuesday's elections. Defeated in 1920 as the Republican forces swept the country, he walked away with this year's election, triumphing over Governor Nathan Miller, who defeated him two years ago. Smith was the Tammany candidate, but ran far ahead of the Tammany candidates.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES

Miss Ida B. Davis was called to Champaign on account of the serious accident which befell her sister.

As a result of a special meeting the faculty and students took part in the Armistice Day parade, and in every way co-operated to make the celebration a success.

The Alumnae Association has gotten out a news bulletin, which is what the name indicates, and has been sent to all former students and alumnae whose addresses have been certified recently. The mailing list is growing rapidly as the addresses of former students are being secured.

Miss Johnston will represent the faculty at the Conference in Champaign to be held on November 24th. She will have a paper which will be read before the Latin section.

President Barker is having a most busy time in his conference work with the Board of Education. He will probably be unable to leave New York City before Tuesday the 14th.

The Department of Home Economics have collected a number of excellent books which are to be used in connection with the work of Vocational Home Economics. Miss Hess, who is acting director in this work in the State Department of Education expects to visit the college before long to check over the improvements which have been made by the department.

Miss Levenia W. Peirce, representing the Educational Department of the Red Book Magazine, was an interesting visitor on Wednesday. Miss Peirce is visiting some of the leading schools in the middle west in connection with the educational work of the magazine.

Miss Mabel Osborn, ex-18, writes most interestingly of her work as a high school teacher. She is located in the second largest high school in the United States, being at Pasadena, California. She has charge of the work in Home Economics and apparently has been very successful in her work if one can judge by the excellent salary which she receives. Another girl from the same class, Miss Ruth Mendenhall, is making good in Social Service work, having her headquarters in Toledo, Ohio. January first she will be transferred to similar work in Seattle, Wash.

One of the active organizations of the college is the Indiana Club. Each year this particular group of students have a special stunt in the dining hall and take an active part in the life of the school. The organization of the Club was completed this week and is officered by the following students: Maxine Sperry, president, and Katherine Yaucek, secretary and treasurer. There are twenty-nine members in the club.

Miss Maude Weeks of Arenzville is enrolled for special work in Spanish, taking private lessons with Miss Esparza.

Miss Florence Collins of Mitchell, South Dakota and her two cousins, the Misses Heaton of East Moline, were visiting at the college Friday. Miss Collins was a pupil for some time in the School of Fine Arts and is planning on taking up her work within the next year or two and completing her course. She and her cousins will visit in Manchester for a few days.

Dean Austin, Miss Mary Anderson, Miss Johnston and Miss Powell were hostesses at a delightful tea given to the faculty and their friends Monday afternoon at 3:05 in Belles Lettres and Phi Nu Halls. Instead of their regular meeting Tuesday evening, the Lambda Nu Society enjoyed a picnic outing at Nicholas Park. Among the guests at the college over the week-end are Mrs. William Collier of Brazil, Indiana, Rev. and Mrs. Betcher of Ashland, Ill., Miss Mary Shirley of Colfax, Ind., and Miss Dorothy Schwarz of Edwardsville.

Miss Sarita Jones, class of '24, spending the week-end with friends in Springfield.

The hockey game which was to be played Friday was postponed until next week. It will be the first game of the series of games in preparation for the Interclass Tournament to be played on Thanksgiving morning. The class teams have not been definitely chosen yet, but will be published next week.

A soccer field is now found on the college campus. This is a new game this year to the school, but a great deal of interest is being taken in the game. Volley Ball is also one of the many games very much enjoyed.

The three tennis courts are kept in use nearly every hour of the day. The Tennis Tournament is to be played in a week or two.

NEW COURSE IN OIL ENGINEERING OPENED

Birmingham, Eng.—A chair of petroleum and oil engineering, the first to be instituted in England has been opened at Birmingham University. The first course offered by students is confined to general mining and technical engineering; the second and third years will include oil well drilling, pumping and refinery construction and operation.

This new department of the University has been made possible through money provided by leading men in the oil industry in England.

KNITTED DRESS IS SHOWN FOR SPORTS

If one has become tired of the sport skirt and sweater coat for golf and hiking and wants something on a slightly smarter line, the new knitted dresses are just the thing. This costume of brown and orange is knitted in such a way that a front and back panel is effected by a fancy stitch. It is silk and wool and has a scarf to match.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

President Rammelkamp, who has been in the east during the past two weeks on business connected with the college, returned to Jacksonville Friday morning. While in the east President Rammelkamp took lunch with Dr. Byron C. Darling, '98, and Harry N. Kirby, '87, at the City Club in New York City and enjoyed a visit with Professor Edward Capps, '87, at Princeton.

At the meeting of the College Y.M.C.A. Wednesday evening Roger Carter gave a talk on the "Anti-Prohibition Movement." The next meeting will be Wednesday evening and Reverend J. F. Langton will address the boys on the subject of "Student Life in Turkey."

The Y. M. and Y. W. associations are planning a Union Thanksgiving service to be held Sunday afternoon, November 26 in the college chapel.

Basket ball practice will begin next Monday afternoon for all boys who are not members of the football squad. The boys are getting an earlier start than usual and should have a fine team this year.

A clever Y.W.C.A. poster is on the bulletin board of the college this week, announcing that the sophomore girls will have charge of the Y.W.C.A. meeting Monday afternoon. The portraits of all the sophomore girls are included on the poster.

The finals for the girls tennis tournament will be held soon. Catherine Wilson and Arden Linder will play for the championship. About ten girls who entered in the contest and there has been keen competition among them for the championship.

Francis Strawn, assistant librarian at the college, left the city Friday for a visit with friends in Griggsville.

At the leaf raking festival held Thursday afternoon, the boys were divided into various groups for the leaf raking contest. The group showing the largest mound of leaves at the end of the afternoon was awarded a large five pound box of chocolates. The group captained by Arthur Howells won the candy.

The Y.W.C.A. advisory board will entertain for Mr. and Mrs. Harmon at the home of Dean and Mrs. Scott Tuesday afternoon.

The Fine Point club will meet with Mrs. J. A. Bellatti Friday, November 17.

WOMEN PLAN FOREST PRESERVE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(By Associated Press.)—Formation of a Kane county forest preserve is being considered by the Kane County Federation of Women's clubs.
 Thomas M. Sullivan of the forest preserve district of Cook county, in a recent address to the federation, made a plea that the natural beauty of the country in the vicinity of Aurora be preserved, declaring that Kane county has the distinction of possessing in its Fox river land some of the most beautiful natural territory in the country.
 Mr. Sullivan warned that the rapid increase in the price of land and the tendency to destroy the natural timber would soon remove Kane county's opportunity to acquire a preserve.
 The following committee was appointed to investigate the possibility of creating the preserve: Mrs. J. H. Bliss, Aurora; Mrs. George E. Watts, Elgin; Mrs. R. B. Farson, St. Charles; Mrs. C. B. Mead, Geneva; Mrs. Burton Scott, Batavia; Mrs. E. D. Spencer, Kaneville; Mrs. William F. Graham, Sugar Grove; and Mrs. C. F. Backus, Hampshire.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

Fredericka Balch, violinist, accompanied by Marie Luke, pianist, gave a program at Franklin on Friday evening.
 Suzanne Rinehart, pupil of Miss Horsburgh, gave a number of violin selections at Hebron on Friday, Nov. 10.
 Mary Lois Clark and Fredericka Balch, pupils of Mme. Colard sang several duets at the Christian church on Monday afternoon. Marie Luke, pupil of Mr. Pearson was the accompanist.
 Mary Lois Clark will sing at a meeting of the Parent Teacher's Association on Tuesday afternoon.
 Rehearsals of the Madrigal Club started last Wednesday evening. All advanced vocal students are eligible to this organization and the splendid result of the year's work is shown in the annual spring concert to which the public is invited free of charge. This season, the director, Mrs. Forrest will devote a good deal of time to the Duets-Taylor arrangements of Folk songs, which have been on the recent programs of the Schumann Club of New York City.
 The interesting program to be given on Monday by Maurice Damesnil, pianist, at the second concert of the L. W. C. Artist's Series, will be found elsewhere in this paper, and as usual students and lovers of music can look forward to hearing something new and novel played in Mr. Damesnil's incomparably brilliant manner.
 Dr. Damesnil is always looking for new works and holds many American composers in the highest respect as well as those of other countries where he has travelled. Outside of being a fine pianist, he is considered a most valuable composer and conductor; indeed, in all parts of Europe and South America, the noted Frenchman holds a high place among musicians. The public is urged not to forego the opportunity of hearing this famous pianist.

AERIAL SERVICE IN ENGLAND POPULAR

LONDON.—The London-Berlin airway, the first section of which, that between London and Holland—was opened recently, completes an aerial service of eleven planes leaving London daily for the Continent. The popularity of the airways among tourists during the past summer has led to plans for routes to be opened in the spring which will connect London by air with all of the principal points within a radius of 500 miles.

These plans included daily trips to Scotland, Deauville, Denmark, Ireland and Luxemburg. It is proposed also to keep several planes for special trips, a feature of travelling which has tourists. The cost of these journeys is about four pence (eight cents) a mile.

The new London-Berlin route is being operated by an English company, and a double service will be run in each direction from Rotterdam daily until the route is completed. The trip will take two and a half hours, and will be made for 4 pounds sterling or little more than 3 1-2 a mile. The second stage of the journey will be opened about October 30, when the route will be from London to Hamburg and Berlin.

At present time five planes are making eight trips daily between London and Paris, carrying an average of three persons on each trip. The routes to Rotterdam, Brussels and Antwerp are constantly filled in advance and carry a full capacity of freight.

LINCOLN COLLEGE TO GET $500,000

Lincoln—Lincoln college is to receive $500,000 of the $5,000,000 educational fund which the synod of Illinois of the Presbyterian church is to raise, according to Dr. O. W. Buehgen, financial secretary of the church's educational board. The college is making an effort to increase its endowment to $1,000,000. The money from the synod will be received about a year hence, he said.

ILLINOIS C. OF C. TO FIGHT CARNIVALS

Decatur, Ill.—(By Associated Press.)—Traveling carnival companies, with their alleged trail of attendant evils, will be the object of a crusade by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce, according to word received by Decatur Association of Commerce. This crusade was suggested by the local commercial body, following the action of several Central Illinois towns in banning such amusement companies.
 "This form of amusement is of no advantage to any community, and some states have already legislated it out of their borders," the bulletin of the Decatur association stated.

REGULATION STOPS RAIL DEVELOPMENT

President of Illinois Central Believes Too Much Regulation Is Cause of Present Trouble in Transportation.

New York, Nov. 11.—(By The Associated Press.)—Government regulation is almost wholly responsible for the decline of railroad development and existing shortage of transportation, Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad, told members of the Railway Business Association at the annual dinner here Thursday.

For ten years before the war, he said, unwise regulation kept down the rates and reduced the net return of the railroads, although wages, prices and returns earned on other lines of business were increasing.

"The outstanding fact regarding the present shortage of transportation is that it has been met at the very beginning of a period of business revival," he said.

"In this respect it creates a situation unprecedented in our history—a situation which should cause every farmer and business man, every railway regulating official, every public man, every wage worker, to pause and reflect seriously."

"In past periods of business revival the increase in freight business has gone on until it has reached a point 35 to 150 per cent higher than ever before. We may well ask ourselves whether, with the railways finding it difficult to surpass the freight record of 1920, they can be expected within a few months or years to handle such an increase in tonnage as past experience shows would only be normal in a period of general revival."

Mr. Markham said the situation is due partly to the coal and shop employees' strikes but added that the large contributing factor was the more rapid development of the production and commerce of the country than the development of the facilities of the railroads.

Essential to Welfare.

"Clearly it is essential to the welfare of the country that the railways should as rapidly as practicable, put their existing facilities in good condition, and that they should for some years rapidly improve and expand their properties," he continued. "The only thing which ever will enable and cause the railways to carry out a sufficient program of expansion will be to let them earn sufficient net return to raise the new capital required for that purpose."

Repeal of the rate making provisions of the Esch-Cummins Transportation act would be the most deadly blow that could be aimed at railroad business, he said, adding that it would tend to cause a chronic shortage of transportation which would seriously hinder all increase of production and commerce as long as it lasted.

"It is plain to every man who thinks that the wages laborer can be paid the income the farmer can get, the profits that can be derived from business, depend on the long run upon the total amount of production and commerce that can be carried on. If the necessities, comforts and luxuries each of our people have is to be increased, we must increase our total production and commerce more rapidly than our population. We have always done this in America. But nothing could be more obvious than that the increase in production and commerce which is vital to the welfare of all cannot be secured without a corresponding increase in transportation."

Business Methods Only Can Save Our Government, Says "Al" Smith

Alfred E. Smith

By EDWARD THERY
NEA Service Staff Writer

New York.—"Political government is sliding backward. The people want stand for that—in New York state or anywhere else. They want it to keep moving forward."

That is the way Alfred E. Smith, Democratic governor-elect of New York, explained for NEA Service his political doctrine.

In an interview on the eve of election the former governor told his ideas of the significance of the 1922 election and his estimate of what it is the people want.

"The most significant thing in this election is the popular demand for progress as against reaction," said Smith. "It is the public welfare against special interests; representative government against autocratic rule."

For Business Methods in Politics

"The demand is for business methods—a system in political government that keeps pace with modern progress. New York state has had two years of Republican rule, immediately following two years as governor, and the state government has slipped backward."

"It isn't only Governor Miller who has gone back. He couldn't have done it without his party. It is indicative of the retrogression of the Republican party nationally. The tariff is an illustration."

Smith said he believed the people with these changes: "First, they want a government they can understand. Second, they want economy in government, and public service."

"Not one person in 10,000 understands what the state government is all about. It is too cumbersome. And not 10 out of 210 in the Legislature know what is in the budgets."

"There is too much privilege. The fellow that has something can get more. The fellow that has nothing can get nothing."

"No private business would be operated today on the same plan used 50 years ago. Yet that is what is happening in New York. We are operating under an archaic constitution of 1872."

"Reforms were instituted, but the Republican administration undid the work. The biggest thing was the effort I made during my 1919-1920 term to reduce the machinery of government from some 180 departments to 18. Governor Miller killed that."

New York Has Lagged Behind

"Now I'm going to tackle that job again. But it cannot operate for two years. If Miller hadn't interfered it would be operating now. The governor of any state is like the chairman of a board of directors of a corporation. Imagine a corporation with a board of nearly 200 members. It can't function."

Smith said that New York was lagging behind other states that had adopted progressive methods. "Our state is the largest in population and wealth," he said, "and naturally it moves slowly. But we can't afford to stand still while others move ahead. There are progressive days. The people of the country are watching us."

Smith mentioned these as some of the progressive reforms he wants to substitute for reaction:

Direct primaries; exemption from taxation of incomes less than $25,000 a year; reorganization of the state government; welfare legislation for women and children; home rule for cities; local control of transit and other public utilities; state development of water power; terminal markets to reduce the cost of living.

FRANCE HAS ROOM FULL OF MARKS

PARIS, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—How much real money is represented by the room full of Germany paper marks, aggregating nearly 3,000,000,000 marks, that the reparations commission is holding for the allies? This is a question that commission officials are having a hard time calculating these days. Careful estimates of the value become worthless before the ink is dry, and the commission is afraid to take a loss by converting the marks into sound money, because of the effect the transaction would have on exchange, with the mark already suffering from severe nervous prostration.

A small proportion of the marks received from Germany, probably 10 per cent, was changed into gold, but the process became dangerous some time ago. Payments from Germany are for the most part required to be made in stable currency, but these marks represent the sale of destroyed war material, sold for scrap iron, and other miscellaneous receipts. They began flowing into the reparations commission's vaults in 1919, when the mark was at one-fifth of its pre-war value, while now several thousand paper marks are needed to buy the equivalent of one gold mark.

These marks were credited to Germany at the current rate of exchange, so the marks received in 1919 are now worth 1-500th of their value on the books.

The French government is an even heavier loser than the reparations commission through the placement of marks with French francs in Alsace-Lorraine, where the government took in 2,000,000,000 marks, giving one franc 25 centimes for each mark. This, however, was done with a patriotic aim and with knowledge that there would be a loss, although it was not expected that the loss would be a total one. Now, however, these marks, for which the government paid more than 2,000,000,000 francs, are worth today only 3,500,000 francs and if the reparations commission and the French government were to dump their holdings on the market they would probably realize decidedly less than the present daily decreasing quotation calls for.

"GOATS BEARD" TO REPLACE "REE'S EYEBROWS"

Washington.—Instead of the "bee's eyebrows" or the "lizard's knees," it threatens to be the "goats beard," pretty quick. Whatever all this modern argot may mean to the rising generation, the "goats beard" is indicated as an advance fashion by no less official a publication than the Panama Canal Record, which ordinarily speaks of marlin spikes, garboard strakes, and ship chandlery. Witness the following official bulletin:

"An item in the cargo of the steamship Felix Taussig, passing thru the canal on August 18th from Pacific to Atlantic ports of the United States, was 47 bales of goats beards weighing 12,127 pounds. Another was 21 bales of human hair stumps weighing 10,497 pounds."

Since fashion announces the return of the pompadour, it necessarily means the return of the "rat" and that accounts for the human hair stumps, but the goats beards remain a mystery. If a bale of goats beards weighs approximately 500 pounds how many goats had to be barbered.

Maybe the fashion designers are plotting false whiskers for one of the new winter modes.

SCOTLAND YARD RAIDED BY THIEVES

C. & A. Outgrows Present Terminals

This Fact Indicated in New Time Card, White Hall Writer Declares—Longer Engine Runs Provided.

White Hall, Nov. 11.—That the Chicago and Alton has outgrown its present terminal arrangement and plans to cut down the excessive terminal expense is indicated in one feature of the new time card that goes into effect Sunday. At that time will be begun the plan of running passenger engines thru from St. Louis to Slater, a distance of 239 miles. This is something new in C. and A. operation, but compared with what other roads are doing it is a maximum of engine mileage capacity, said to have been patterned after the Union Pacific, where there is one run of 500 miles for a single engine.

W. M. Anderson of Lewistown, Mont., now a guest at the Meyersteln home in White Hall, is master mechanic of the Milwaukee road at that point, and he says it is customary to run engines 300 and 400 miles without change on lines where the terminals are not necessarily short in order to accommodate branch lines. Mr. Anderson declares that the longer runs, even in freight service, are preferable to short runs for the reason that the crews get over the road to better advantage and have a longer stay at their terminal home.

What may be the ultimate plan of the C. and A. was in no way revealed on the occasion of the recent visit of Receiver Blier to White Hall other than a casual remark by him that the road had a million dollar improvement program for the immediate vicinity along the line of the engineering work in this field a year ago. He did make it plain that the facilities of the present day for handling dirt rendered the expense so much less than formerly that cutting down grades does not present a serious obstacle, a matter that ought to give comfort to the C. and A. and Burlington are working together to bring about a change that will not necessitate two crossings within two miles if one will answer just as well. An analysis of the situation as here presented would indicate that the C. and A. will go under the Burlington track west of Roadhouse.

Mr. Blier could hardly be expected to make a trip in his official car from Chicago to White Hall just for the ride, but it is difficult to fathom just what might be the aims to rehabilitate the C. & A. under court direction and return it to the original owners with loss of nothing save a few items of juggling bonds that have produced fixed charges on the C. & A., that became too burdensome for the road to carry, and which represented no actual investment.

Mr. Blier did give out his ambition in life, and that he said is not the presidency of the Pennsylvania railroad. "I want a farm that I can make pay its way, as a plaything that produces no return would not interest me. I want to raise black-faced cattle that will take first prize at the International Live Stock Exposition."

That in a few words sums up his ambition, as he expects to retire from the railroad game, and it is said that he plans to make a return visit to look over the land situation about White Hall. He stated, however, that in all his familiarity with the country as a whole no stretch of farm lands look so good to him as the territory surrounding Murrayville. He indicated a familiarity with Gregory Farm that seemed to have given him inspiration, although he said the horse game is too big a proposition for him to undertake. It is said that Mr. Blier has retained close relations with one Louis Lowenstein since his White Hall visit.

White Hall, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—How much real money is represented by the room full of Germany paper marks, aggregating nearly 3,000,000,000 marks, that the reparations commission is holding for the allies? John Carl, the Hatter

U. of I. Does Good Work In Illinois

URBANA, Ill. — A return of over 300 per cent per year on the investment is the result of use of limestone, rock phosphate, and sweet clover on the hill lands of Southern Illinois, results of work on the University of Illinois experiment plots in that section reveal.

"The increased yields when calculated at prevailing prices for produce show a gain of over $3 per acre per year," the university announced recently, "and the soil treatment in the long run costs about $3 per acre per year. This is a return of over 300 per cent on the investment."

"The results" from these field experiments show that a great deal may be accomplished in a short time toward restoring the fertility of these lands by the use of limestone, rock phosphate and sweet clover as a green manure crop. "On the Unionville experiment field, located in Massac county, as an average of the past four years, the untreated land has produced crop yields as follows: corn 13 bushels, wheat 8 bushels, cowpea hay 1,300 pounds per acre. On this same experiment field the land treated as above described has, as an average of the past four years, produced crop yields as follows: corn 31 bushels, wheat 21 bushels, cowpea hay, 2,500 pounds per acre.

"The experiment field at Eliza-

U. of I. Does Good Work In Illinois

betdown in Hardin county shows the crop yield in this hill region may be doubled by a simple and inexpensive system of soil treatment.

"There are in Southern Illinois eleven counties which contain more or less hill land. Some of these counties are composed entirely of hill land while others have a rather large percentage of prairie or level timber land. The farm lands of these hilly regions are subject to erosion, and having been under cultivation for a long time, they are in a very much run down condition. This type of land covering such a large area offers a huge problem in the way of restoring its depleted fertility. The university has for several years been attempting a solution of the soil fertility problem of this section of the state by establishing field experiments at various points in this district."

The gradual decrease of ocular power which accompanies old age should not be considered contrary to nature any more than it is for the hair to turn gray, the teeth to become defective, or the muscles to weaken.

Besides as age advances, the other physical faculties are apt to be used less and less, and the eyes more and more.

Artificial aid is therefore to be expected and should always be resorted to at the first indication of failing eyesight. Call and let us fit you with the glasses your eyes require.

WILL GIVE RECITAL HERE NOVEMBER 16

George Wilton Ballard, tenor, and Sibyl Sanderson Fagan, whistler, will give a joint recital in this city on Thursday evening, November 16, at Northminster church. Assisting them will be: Willard Osborne, Violinist.

Mr. Ballard has a high, sweet tenor, admirably suited to the romantic songs he likes to sing so well. He specializes on love songs, highly flavored with romance. If you want to hear some of your old favorites you should not miss the opportunity to attend this concert.

Mr. Ballard is a native of Syracuse, New York. His musical career began where that of so many well known singers did—in Church Choirs. We hear so much these days about how the Church has failed. But even the greatest pessimist in the world could not fail to admit that our Churches have done one very great service to the World. And that is in giving our American girls and boys, who aspire to sing, a chance for excellent training and for a public hearing. Mr. Ballard did solo work in Church Choirs for a long time before he became a Concert singer.

Aside from singing George Wilton Ballard has one great hobby. That is bass fishing. They say if there are bass to be had, Mr. Ballard will always get them. The celebrated tenor likes to camouflage his interest in bass fishing by adding that fishing is a great means of prompting to think, and as a trouble dispeller it has no equal. Music lovers of this City will find Mr. Ballard himself, a good trouble dispeller.

There are few people in the world who can whistle the way Sibyl Sanderson Fagan does it. When Miss Fagan was a little girl she was given to making everybody in the family miserable by whistling loudly and eternally. One day a professional whistler came to visit Miss Fagan at her home in Springfield, Ohio, and she suddenly discovered that she could whistle a 'little better' as she modestly puts it than most people.

She determined to make a real artistic profession for herself by means of her unusual gift. She studied breathing exercises, which are quite as important in whistling as in singing. Also, she studied the piano until her artistic ideals were developed. It didn't take her long, at the beginning of piano lessons, to see that her whistling could be made a real art and not an entertaining novelty.

Miss Fagan whistles by means of her two fingers. She says she wouldn't even try it any other way, for she can whistle longer and get less tired and avoid blistered lips by using her fingers. There are two little callous places on those fingers, just below the joints where she bites them.

Brady Bros., are to be congratulated on the initiative in bringing these prominent artists to Jacksonville. They still have a few cards of admittance which will be issued in order of application.

Tickets for "THE CLIMAX" to be given here Friday night under the A. A. U. W. AUSPICES can be reserved Monday at Brown's Music store.

OLDENBURG ISSUES LOAN BASED ON VALUE OF RYE

Oldenburg, Oldenburg.—By the A. P.—A literal application is being given here to the poetic phraseology "golden grain." Operating on the principle that "rye is gold," the state of Oldenburg is issuing "rye money" on the following basis.

The state needs 150,000,000 marks. In order to raise that sum notes will be used bearing a specific value in rye. Whoever acquires one of these notes will pay whatever is the current market value of the amount of rye in which it is quoted, together with a fixed rate of interest. The notes are to be redeemable after four years. If rye is then worth ten times its present value, the holder will realize ten fold on his note, and similarly will lose if the rye market has slumped.

As rye is now selling, the note issue of 150,000,000 marks will be equivalent to approximately $3,400 centners (about 105,286 bushels) of rye. This is considered an extraordinarily small quantity compared with the usual Oldenburg harvest.

It is foreseen that other sections of Germany may follow this state's example, since the local experiment represents one of the first attempts to find a stable basis of transaction in view of the mark's irregular fluctuations.

IS GREEN NO MORE

"My experience with your medicine has been wonderful. My stomach and liver trouble of five years standing took a new turn two years ago when I took an olive green complexion. I spent $1,200 with doctors and specialists only to prove that I was still as green as ever. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am green no more. Mayr's stomach and liver trouble has disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale at all druggists.—Adv.

Mrs. Marion Morton O'Reilly.

Alleged unauthorized use of a photograph of the world's most beautiful model—in tights—has resulted in the Wallace System of Physical Training being made defendant in a suit for $100,000 damages. Mrs. Marion Morton O'Reilly is the model and she charges that the publication of the photo, taken for private use, has resulted in her husband refusing to live with her and ordering his attorney to start divorce proceedings.

WILL LAY CORNERSTONE. The cornerstone of the Salem church will be laid Sunday, November 19, with appropriate ceremonies. It is planned to have an out of town speaker and a program. Congregations of neighboring Lutheran churches have been invited to come or send representatives. Progress is being made on the building of the new church. Workmen are busy excavating the basement and by a week from Sunday the structure will be ready for the cornerstone ceremonies.

READ THIS

Every woman is vitally interested in the reasons "Why Wives Go Wrong," and it is because of the concentrated desire of the feminine sex that Manager Scott of the Grand has arranged a special matinee performance next Saturday, November 18, of the play, "Why Wives Go Wrong," at which time only the Fair Sex will be admitted. No male being will be permitted to enter the front door of the theatre. While, of course, the subject is thrashed out in a surprising and startling manner in the play itself a special feature of the "Ladies Only" matinee will be a complete discourse after the third act by Miss Madeline Armistead, the leading lady of the company. Miss Armistead has had experience in social service work in New York City and in Chicago and it is of this particularly that she will speak. She will relate actual experiences and will delve into the very bottom of the alluring subject. Can it be that financial depression has something to do with the fair matrons who have strayed down the primrose path? Can it be environment or surroundings? Can it be the desire for fine clothes, parties, autos, and other frivolities? Can it be misplaced love and confidence? Does every woman love her husband or does she

"THE CLIMAX"—A PLAY OF GREAT POPULAR APPEAL

"The Climax," which will be at the high school auditorium Friday night is under the auspices of the American Association of University owners is a play of tremendous popular appeal and stirring dramatic power. The play is unique because it requires but four characters. But four ordinary actors could not play this comedy even half successfully.

The play deals with the queer inhabitants of a musician's household, and hence requires an actress who knows something about singing, and who, above all, must have a voice. The play demands a person of much originality and temperament for the part of the old music master, a boy who can play the piano and an actor who has the power to present the part of the lover in such a way that he will be hated by the whole audience when the play comes to an end.

Mercedes Desmore, who has had grand opera training, and who once thought of following the profession of an opera singer, will act the part of the singer in the play.

Maurice Drew, a man of striking personality and real temperament, will play the old music master. Albert Lowy, who has had musical comedy experience, will play the pianist. Franklin Rousay, a successful New York actor, will play the lover.

"Pater Noster," a one-act play by Francois Coppee, the great French poet and short story writer, will be given as a curtain raiser to "The Climax." Hilda England and practically an all-star cast will enact "Pater Noster."

"Pater Noster," which will be given as a curtain raiser to "The Climax" Friday night is one of the few great one act plays of the world.

Francois Coppee, the great French writer, author of the playlet, wrote it in blank verse after the tradition of Shakespeare, and as a result the characters of the play require artists of an uncommon ability to act them. Mademoiselle Rose, the heroine, is a particularly difficult role, and in the hands of anyone but a genius would be a calamitous failure.

Hilda England, who created the role in the premiere New York and Philadelphia productions, will play the role of Rose again Friday night, and will be superbly assisted by Robert Donaldson, Alma Bunnell, Franklin Ramsey, Maurice Drew, and Albert Lowy.

SOME WAR SAVING STAMPS SOON DUE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—War savings stamps of the series of 1918 become due and payable on January 1, 1923. The people who bought these stamps will receive their full face value upon redemption and will find that the money they saved five years ago has earned every year about four per cent compounded interest. In order to afford holders of war savings stamps an opportunity to continue their investment in a safe government security the treasury department is offering an exchange of war savings stamps for treasury savings certificates. The certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000, maturity value, and sold for $20.50, $52, and $820, respectively. Holders of war savings stamps can get them at these prices upon application through their own banks or their postoffices. Exchanges will be made as of January 1, 1923, upon applications presented between November 15, 1922, and January 15, 1923. Immediate payment will be made in cash of any difference due the holder of war savings stamps if he takes the largest possible amount of treasury savings certificates on the exchange.

The growing inclination of the people to save and their desire to find a safe re-investment for their money leads treasury officials to believe that a large part of the six hundred million dollars in war savings stamps soon to become due will be exchanged for treasury savings certificates.

Durant Has $150,000 Job But Refuses a Salary

W. C. DURANT WHO REFUSED A SALARY OF $150,000 A YEAR

By EDWARD TIGHERY
NEA Service Staff Writer.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Would you take a salary of $100,000 to $150,000 a year if you could get it?

Here is one man whose reply is "No."

He is W. C. Durant, pioneer automobile builder, who has just skyrocketed into the public eye by entering the low priced car field on the same plane with Henry Ford.

The startling fact that Durant refuses to take a salary, now known for the first time, is one thing he will not talk about. It can be stated, however, that he not only has not drawn a salary during the years that he has been a leading executive in the automobile industry—but he has never turned in an expense account.

Durant's proudest achievement is that in less than two years he has built up a group of motor companies that have 105,181 common stockholders. Only two corporations exceed this number, the American Telephone & Telegraph Co., and the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

Fights Wall Street.
"That is the sort of public ownership of industries that this country needs," said Durant. "Workers who make and use a product should own the producing industry. It is the greatest possible educational factor, the only sure cure for labor ills and social troubles."

"The day of sharp distinction between the so-called capitalists and working classes is passing. The wage earner's greatest weapon is the ownership of stock in industries; it takes the danger out of capitalism and spreads financial independence among the masses of people."

Durant admitted that in some respects he holds the same views as Henry Ford. The parallel is not in wide distribution of stock ownership, for the Ford industries are owned entirely within the Ford family, but in a common war against Wall Street.

"The control of industry by a small financial group also is passing," he said. "The fact that within less than two years more than 100,000 persons have supplied millions of financial backing for our new motor companies proves that industry can be independent of Wall Street."

Durant says he has not declared war on Henry Ford in the low-priced automobile field.

Says Auto Field is Limitless.

"We put the prices of our new car at the Ford level because we found it could be done," he said. "But I have no thought of a price war. It wouldn't disturb me if Ford produced a car selling as cheaply as sewing machine. I will never cut into his business. He will sell more and more year by year—and so will we."

"The automobile field is so unlimited that there is room or both, even the we will build 215,000 low-priced cars this coming year."

"The one problem that must be solved is that of traffic. Highways are being built exactly parallel to railroad developments, two, three and four road systems are already beginning, and I see in the future a net-work of highways with separate sections for passenger cars and trucks, each with one-way divisions."

"Thus America can absorb many times the 10,000,000 machines that are now in use. The greater problem is in the cities. Perhaps double-deck streets will be the solution."

Durant, following up this subject, has just written to the Merchants Association of New York urging the appointment of a commission to study the traffic problem. He warns merchants everywhere that unless a solution is found there will be such rapid growth of suburban and community center stores that downtown groups of mercantile shops will not be able to survive competition killed by traffic congestion.

The Women's Missionary Society of State Street church will meet at the church parlors Tuesday at 3 o'clock.

The Service Star Legion will meet Thursday November 16 at 3 o'clock with Mrs. James Merrill, 722 West College avenue.

HOLIDAYS PROVIDE EXCUSE FOR DRINKING

RIGA.—By the A. P.—M. Semashko, the Soviet Commissar of Health, has issued a plea for the moderation of drinking in Russia, particularly among the peasant class, according to information reaching Riga.

"In Riga the real subject for discussion should be drunkenness," he says not a moderate consumption of spirits, as is known in Europe, but the sporadic drinking of very great quantities of strong liquor."

The Commissar places the blame for present conditions partly on religious customs, which provide the people with a great number of festivals as an excuse for drinking, and partly on the bourgeoisie, who drive the poor man to drunkenness, he says. He does not advocate total abstinence, but urges the state to adopt moderation measures.

Other information on this same subject sets forth that the Tomsk government has decided to reintroduce as a state monopoly, the sale of vodka containing 38 per cent alcohol. The fight against illicit distilling in Tomsk does not appear to have been successful as the people are in sympathy with the "moon-shiners."

GIRLS! GO IN FOR POLITICS

Advises Woman Leader

Mrs. Charles H. Sabin

By JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT

Southampton, N. Y.—To the young woman in search of a career there comes a suggestion:

Go in for politics! Be a better politician than any man in your community and try to accomplish more civic good.

The suggestion comes straight from Mrs. Charles H. Sabin, president of the Woman's National Republican club, an ardent worker in the struggle for suffrage and an important factor in national politics.

"Go in for politics," she urges, "make a career of it as you would of art or music. The opportunities are boundless. The United States has had only two women congressmen. The field of diplomacy has only just been opened up by the appointment of the first woman to a place in an American embassy."

Most Attractive Field for Women

"There is no more attractive field in the world today for a woman than politics—her desire to be of service."

"And her return—in prestige, influence, the knowledge of service rendered—are enormous."

The picture which Mrs. Sabin draws is a glowing one. The arduousness, however, is not to be dampened by the rigid course of training which she lays down for the woman political aspirant.

"A woman must train herself for politics," she maintains, "just as thoroughly as she would for any other career."

Start at Bottom.

"Then run for the lowliest office there is—in the city a captaincy of a district, in the county a membership on the county committee. This means, in plain speaking, a house-to-house canvass and delivering the votes."

"If you make good in this line runs straight from an associate leadership of the district or a vice chairmanship of the county committee to a place in the state assembly. And from here—if you have demonstrated your fitness—the line runs straight to the highest position you are qualified to take."

The daughter of Paul Moore, at one time a member of Roosevelt's cabinet, Mrs. Sabin grew up in an atmosphere of politics and since she was 21 years old she has missed but one national political convention. She has been a delegate to every state convention since women had the vote.

She was one of the organizers of the Women's National Republican club which she served first as vice president and is now serving as president.

NEW ARTISTS COLONY HAS BEEN USHERED IN

CHICAGO — A new artists colony has been ushered into life the past season. At Bailey's Harbor a picturesque old town on the Lake Michigan side of the peninsula between the lake and Green Bay. Two instructors from the Art Institute of Chicago, F. deForest Schook and Frederick Poole, led forty veterans of the world war into camp and there built a large studio.

The former soldiers are studying under the Rehabilitation "visions of the United States Government. Many of the men were accompanied by their wives. Outdoor sketching and painting was the order of the day, but for rainy weather, a 30 foot by 80 foot specially constructed studio was available. The government is sending 15 disabled ex-service men to the Art Institute and paying each, including tuition, about $2,000 per year. This continues for four years, three years of which are spent in the school and one year in "placement," which means that the fourth year is spent in working in some commercial art concern.

Besides tuition and other expenses such as materials, each unmarried man receives $100 per month, married men $135, with $10 per month extra for each child. One of the men has a family of five children and draws the largest pay check, as he ought to, of course.

Forty-two of the 115 went to the summer camp at Bailey's Harbor. They were formed into classes and worked steadily from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 1:30 to 4:30 P. M. five days a week. The boys designed the stage settings and painted the scenery for a play.

Full line of TOYS, at BRENNAN'S, South Sandy street.

Schriver of Rock Island has been appointed a field agent for the state educational rehabilitation department. The duties of the office include interviewing prospective subjects for rehabilitation in a tier of counties adjacent to Rock Island and making reports on persons under the care of the department. The salary is $250 a month.

MAJOR SCHRIVER GETS APPOINTMENT Springfield, Ill.—(By Associated Press.)—Major Harry M.

Stockholm, Sweden—Swedish motorists will begin to pay taxes on their vehicles and tires on January 1, 1923. Tourists from foreign countries, however, may still bring their own cars into the country and roam about at will for as much as twelve months without any charge whatsoever.

The new auto tax, which is to be applied to the repairing and improvements of roads in Sweden is levied on cars and tires according to their weight. Each car using rubber tires is taxed 8 kron or for every hundred kilograms or fraction thereof, which amounts to about $1 per hundred pounds. The tires are taxed 1.50 krona for every kilogram of weight. Tires in use at the beginning of next year will be exempt, and in the case of pneumatic tires, two extras will be exempt.

TAX WILL BUILD BETTER ROADS

Recently two young women appeared at an athletic meet smoking pipes, and many of the fashionable shops of Bond Street have exhibited stocks of pipes designed for the feminine smoker. However, the invention has made little progress, and cigarettes are still the favorite.

ENGLISH WOMEN ARE ADVISED TO SMOKE PIPES

LONDON—English physicians are urging women who are addicted to smoking, to use a pipe and good tobacco instead of the cigarette. The doctors point out that the nicotine found in the cheaper brands of cigarettes is much more injurious to women than to men, and they declare that the perfumes and scents used in brands prepared for the fair sex also are injurious.

The recent deaths of women have been attributed directly to cigarette smoking. While these cases have been due to excessive smoking, the physicians say that the amount of pipe smoking probably would not have had fatal results.

Smoking among women in London is now almost universal, and one rarely goes to a theater dance or restaurant where the majority of the women present are not smoking.

The Style Clothes of America

Remember the story of the father who gave his son paper, pen and ink, locking him in a huge library and told him to write a great poem. The boy had all the material but lacked imagination.

Beautiful all-wool fabrics are of little value until, by the wizardry of the tailor's needle, they are fashioned into a stylish garment.

It is this extraordinary skill, this imagination—if you please—that has made the Stratford Clothes above and apart from the usual in clothes. Small wonder that they are termed by young men of better dress "The Style Clothes of America."

Come in and see our Fall Display. A visit of inspection involves no obligation. We're always glad to see you.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

FURTHER RECESSION IN MARKET PRICES

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Continued bear pressure and renewed liquidation of stocks by large interests caused further recessions in prices today, losses of one to five points being quite numerous in the active issues.

Several factors contributed to the decline among them the lack of public interest, publication of Washington dispatches indicating possibility of unfavorable tax legislation by the next congress and pressure from banks to induce reduction of brokerage loans and further weakness in foreign bonds.

Weakness extended over the entire list but equipments, steels, oils, chemicals and tobaccos were the hardest hit. Lack of support was attributed in some quarters to the absence from the floor of traders who ordinarily could be counted upon to offer resistance in certain standard shares.

Baldwin Locomotive broke four points, touching 125. American Locomotive registered a net loss of 2 1/2, getting as low as 125 1/2. United States Steel common which was pushed up briskly the other day apparently to cover up unloading of stocks in other quarters yielded with the rest today, dropping two points and closing at 105 1/2, its low of the day.

Crucible broke nearly 3 points and Bethlehem and Vanadium were down 2 points.

Standard Oil of New Jersey broke below 200 for the first time in several weeks closing at a net loss of 6 1/2 points.

Some of the large individual losses included American Tobacco, Corn Products and Dupont.

Total sales were 236,000 shares.

Foreign exchanges were firm, there being no changes of importance. The clearing house statement showed a decrease of $40,910,000 in loans, discounts and investments an increase of $4,337,000 in cash and $34,449,000 in the reserve of member banks in the federal reserve bank.

Net demand deposits decreased $41,031,000. Aggregate reserve totalled $544,189,000 making an increase in excess reserve of $39,568,750.

United States government bonds irregular but mainly downward. Liberty 3 1/2s and the New 4 1/2 per cent bonds improved four and six cents on 100, respectively, but the First, Second and Third 4 1/2s and the Called Victory dropped 4 to 48 cents. Others were unchanged.

Total bond sales (par value) were $7,034,260.

Cattle—Receipts 3,000 compared with week ago; strictly choice and prime long fed steers scarce; steady; fat feeds largely 50c higher; spots more; western grassers, stockers and feeders steady to higher; extreme top matured steers $13.50; best yearlings $13; best western Canadian $9.50; beef cows and heifers unevenly 25c to 75c up; heifers advancing most; canners, cutters and bulls strong to 15c higher; veal calves mostly 50c higher; week's bulk prices; native beef steers $8.25@11.25; bulk western grassers $6@7; bulk stockers and feeders $6.75@9.75; bulk beef cows and heifers $4.25 @ $6.75; stock canners and cutters $2.85@3.40; bulk veal calves $10@10.50.

Kansas City Livestock

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 11.—U. S. Department of Agriculture.—Cattle — Receipts 3,500; For week: Beef steers averaging steady; medium grades being weak and others strong; top $12; she stock mostly 15 to 25c higher; canners mostly 25c higher; bulls 25 to 50c higher; calves mostly 25 to 50c higher; stockers and feeders weak to 15c lower; stock cows and heifers steady to strong; stock calves strong to higher.

BUTTER MARKET

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Butter markets reacted this week after a period of steady advances and for the last two days were barely steady. The movement was slower, altho prices held fairly well. A scarcity of all grades helped keep markets relatively firm regardless of lessened consumption demand. Closing prices, 32 score butter: New York, 49 1/2c; Philadelphia, 50 1/2c; Boston, 49 1/2c; Chicago, 48 1/2c.

GRAIN MARKETS REMAINED CLOSED SATURDAY

Grain Exchanges thruout the country and many of the less important markets remained closed thruout the day Saturday in observance of Armistice Day.

SWIFT CO. PRODUCE MARKET REVIEW

The U. S. department of agriculture, in its preliminary report shows stocks of butter and eggs in cold storage November 1, as follows:

Butter:
1922	73,917,000 lb
1921	77,983,000 lb
Shortage	4,066,000 lb
Eggs:
1922	5,715,000 cases
1921	4,380,000 cases
Excess	1,335,000 cases

Deliveries of cream are about normal for the season, and prices on butterfat have worked higher in sympathy with the butter markets. Consumption of butter is reported to be falling off a little, due to higher retail prices, and there is some surplus butter accumulating in the hands of the wholesalers.

More attention to the production and care of cream will result in higher grades and better butter.

Heavy receipts of live poultry last week have been reflected in increased volume of dressed poultry arriving at seaboard cities this week, and lower prices prevail on dressed stock. There has been some improvement in the volume of live poultry over the low prices of the previous week.

Reports indicate there is still a large crop of poultry on the farms to be marketed, and producers are now culling out and selling fowl that are through laying.

The supply of fresh eggs continues light and good prices realized on fine stock. Storage eggs are generally selling below cost, and due to the larger stocks continued heavy consumption is necessary to clear the supply, before fresh production increases.

East St. Louis Livestock

East St. Louis, Ill., Nov. 11.—U. S. Department of Agriculture.—Cattle—Receipts 1,200; compared with week ago. Choice steers shade lower; others 5 to 50c lower; steers selling $8.25 @ $10.40; down mostly; western grassers steady; light yearlings and heifers 25c higher; cows and canners 15 to 25c higher; bulls steady; light calves $1.50 to $1.75 higher; stocker steers 25c lower; top steers for week $11.75; bulk for week native steers $8.25 @ $10.40; westerns $5@6.45; light yearlings $5.50@9; cows $3.75@4.75; canners $2.35 @ $2.75; bologna bulls $3.75 @ $4.25.

GERMANY HAS NO REPARATIONS MONEY

LONDON.—By the A. P.—Sir
Eric Geddes did some very plain talking about German reparations as the guest of the Thirty Club of London, recently. This club is an association of advertising experts. When in parliament
Sir Eric was noted for his straight-forward style of speech, and since he became a business man again he is more outspoken than ever.

"In 1918 I was a politician," he said, "and I said then that we should not make a fetish of reparations; that we might find reparations a boomerang, and that the demanding of great sums from Germany might be bad. I nearly lost my seat over that statement, and I had to hedge it a bit."

"He was under no necessity of doing any hedging before the Thirty Club," he continued. "What I said in 1918 has come absolutely true now," he declared. "We were absolutely wrong as allies, in trying to get the last penny out of Germany. We cannot get it because it is not there."

"It is no use chasing a mirage.
You can only get reparations out of Germany by either money or goods. She has no money and if you take her goods it will mean unemployment here. If the leaders of thought could bring that home to our people, it would be a good thing for this country."

"I have just come from Germany. They are desperate there.
There will never be a strong government until the people know that they can manage their own affairs. Until we and our allies come down to bed-rock, find out what Germany can pay, and tell them so, there will be no improvement. When we do that, Germany will try to pay, if possible.
But you cannot enslave a nation of seventy millions for generations."
